Spark the Spirit

Feel Our Pride

Principal's Message

In so many ways, this has been an Olympic year for Branksome Hall. Long before the Winter Games began, we captured the Olympic spirit that rippled across Canada, and then we basked in post-games national pride. In addition, we supported, through Canada's Adopt-an-Athlete program, hockey player Jennifer Botterill, who earned a gold medal mere weeks after her visit to Branksome.

Throughout the school year, we also celebrated our own brand of gold medallists – people who have given their all and who have made a difference.

We cheered for the guest speakers who graced our podium, including children's rights activist Marc Kielburger, peacekeeper Major Brent Beardsley, and former Ontario cabinet minister Mary Anne Chambers. We shared, in the words of journalist Sarah Hampson, in humanitarian Greg Mortenson's "magnificent obsession" to build schools in some of the world's most remote regions.

Of course, we have our own torchbearers in class each day, teaching about teamwork, perseverance and global understanding. Our faculty inspire our students and nurture in them the knowledge and skills they will need to go out into the world as champions.

Throughout the school year, Branksome students themselves owned the podium in the arts, debating, community service, academic accomplishments, and, of course, sports. I am so very proud of all of you.

Congratulations to editor Jennifer Langill and the entire Slogan team for your Olympic-calibre efforts in taking this well-crafted yearbook across the finish line!

Karen Murton
Principal

Mrs. Karrie Weinstock

Head of Middle and Senior School and Admissions

This past school year, which ended one decade and started another, will be remembered for its outstanding new initiatives like Week without Halls, whole school assemblies and Pennies for Peace. Our entire school community (including our partner schools, Rose Avenue in Toronto and QGAP in South Africa) read Greg Mortensen's Three Cups of Tea and it was a privilege to have him visit Branksome Hall in January. His humanitarian work promoting education for children, especially girls, inspired us all. The Slogan is a reminder of the special moments like these and many others that we experienced. We fondly remember the friendships, achievements and fun we had. Many thanks to the Slogan staff for your energy and creativity. You captured 2009-10 for us, and it continues to live as we turn the pages of this outstanding yearbook.

Ms Joanne Colwell

Director of Student Life

In 2009-2010, we ended the first decade of the 21st century with student initiatives that brought our community together in noteworthy ways. The prefects' motto, "Spark the Spirit, Feel our Pride" coupled with our Community Service theme of education, set the background for community initiatives that involved extraordinary speakers, events mixed with creative efforts to boost pride and spirit. From Spirit Week, Highland Games and our first ever whole school assemblies to the prefects' "morning spark" and Olympic Week plus clan scarves and cudos, we celebrated and raised our community spirit. With Greg Mortenson and Mark Kielburger along with newly initiated Community Service Superstars, we sparked our desire to support others less fortunate. With SLOGAN staffers at the ready to record every spark and flame of Branksome spirit, we know this year was captured in this much anticipated keepsake that we will treasure into the next decade and beyond.

Ms Sarah Craig

Head of Junior School

This year was all about taking action and making a difference in the Junior School. Our whole school read of Three Cups of Tea inspired each Junior School girl to support Greg Mortensen's Pennies for Peace and then to continue to think about how to help others through service. We thank each girl for making a difference. The Grade 6 leaders rose to the challenge of leadership with confidence and maturity. They greeted us in the morning, made Clans fun, and helped us to take action through Action Committee. We thank them for making a difference. Jenny Langill, our Junior School Prefect, shared her commitment, enthusiasm, leadership and creativity with us through Big Sister/Little Sister events and Movie Nights. We thank her for making a difference. Our teachers encouraged us to take risks and inspired us to love learning. We thank them for making a difference too!

Mrs. Nanci Smith

Director of Athletics and Residence

My responsibilities with the Residence and Athletics programs afford me the opportunity to visit many schools and catch a glimpse of student life other than Branksome's. While all schools have their own special qualities and character, I am reminded after visiting other institutions that Branksome is truly remarkable and I am proud to be part of its community. Branksome Hall has great students. Reflecting on this school year, I can think of hundreds of moments that Branksome girls have demonstrated the spirit that is unique to our school. From our very youngest athletes in the Junior School to our most talented and experienced senior athletes, they have availed themselves with teamwork, determination and above all outstanding sportsmanship. It is their energy that has lined our gym walls with championship banners. The Residence students from over a dozen countries have chosen Branksome over all other options as the place that is their home away from home as well as their school. Their courage to be risk takers and global learners is astounding; they bring a wealth of perspective and outlook that enriches the Residence program every single day. A special thank you to Residence Prefect, Claire Liu for her kindness as a mentor for our younger students and her enthusiasm for residence life. Also, congratulations to Sports Captain Juliana Faircloth and her tireless work and efficiency with Athletics. All the best, Mrs. Smith

"Spark the Spirit, Feel Our Pride"

Dilshaan Panjwani: Head Girl

Thank you to the entire Branksome community for bringing the motto to life this year! You have embraced the many 'pickles' and challenges with an open heart and have truly made representing the school an enjoyable task. I am proud and honoured to be part of a community with such pride, tradition, kindness and genuine respect for one another. Thank you everyone for the endless support, be it patiently waiting while I adjust the mic to my height in assembly to enthusiastically cheering for announcements, your encouragement and smiles made this role memorable. Thank you to all the administration, for your guidance, reason and creativity. Finally, I would like to thank the prefects for your optimism, confidence and fun-loving attitudes. Although our ideas are sometimes ridiculous (Jonas?), with your hard work, we always manage to pull through. I will cherish the friendships we have made and the many laughs we have shared. Thank you Branksome and I hope you keep sparking the spirit for many years to come! Love Always, Dilshaan

Cristina Osorio: Admissions

From my very first moments as an elementary student visiting Branksome Hall, to my first tour as an ambassador (I can still remember practicing the "firm" handshake with my parents); and finally ending with my experience as the Admissions Prefect, has been unimaginable. The fact that this year I received the opportunity to work with such an eager, committed and professional group of people has been a dream come true. To the Ambassadors: watching your enthusiasm towards helping the admissions team throughout the day was truly amazing. Ms. Burke, Mrs. Carter and Ms. Mouftah: stopping by the admissions office became a daily routine. From planning Open House, to organizing stuffing parties, this year has been memorable. And to the Prefects: in moments of stress (there were many), you were always there for me; I could not have asked for a more supportive group of friends. Thank you! Ladies, wear your Ambassador's pin with pride, you have earned them!

Sarah Rosenblat: Arts

The Arts are special because they range from something as simple as a word to the most complex theatre production, musical score or mixed-media piece. And let me say Branksome, you sure know how to love the Arts. I just want to take the time to say thanks GIRLS for being so talented and valuing each other through the Arts. Running Arts Council was a blast with you guys, and I hope you all take at least a few minutes every once in a while and do something creative. Thanks for an AWESOME year, I hope you enjoyed it as much as I did!
Lots of love (and luck),
Sare xoxo

Jacqui Carl: Beta Kappa / Social

Between the Rout, Flare, Father Daughter, Formal and the Straw, you girls all made this year's social events AMAZING. Beta Kappa Council: You girls worked hard, had amazing ideas and helped make this year a success. I couldn't have done it without you. Ms. Cowell: I appreciate all of your support from the big things to the tiniest details. The events would not have been able to function without you. THANK YOU!
Ms. Supino, Ms. Bolté and Ms. Bell: Thank you for always being there. Your guidance and support helped me through the busiest times of the year! Prefects: You are ALL truly amazing. Thank you for your support at events, and for putting up with me in my most stressful times. This year was so much fun, and we truly SPARKED THE SPIRIT! A piece of advice- Party all the time! Branksome gals, never let anything get you down. Just HAVE FUN! Love always, Jacqui

Elizabeth Worndl: Clans

Whether it's the 2pm sugar rush from snack, bruised knees from KinBall, or sore hips from bustin' a move for T Fox, Clans is just about the most amazing tradition a BH girl could ask for. From Quidditch matches to the clan catwalk, Highland games and everything else in between, there's an extra special group I would like to thank. Gals, the 16 of you have made my last year better than I could have ever imagined. Your enthusiasm, strange ideas and $148 snack bills have made me laugh (and cry) harder than I ever have. Mrs. R, there's no words to describe how fantastic you've been. We agree on just about everything, thank you for being my other (more organized) half this year. And to the witches and wizards of BH, YOU are the ones who have made CLANS what they are today. I truly will never forget you. Farewell good students, YOU ACTUALLY ROCK.

Elizabeth Cunningham: Clubs

At BH, we are so fortunate to have over 40 clubs and societies. It would be impossible for a student to not be able to find a club or society that interests them. From debating to fashion arts, the list of clubs is endless. Clubs are essential as they allow students to be well rounded and help create new skills. All students can join clubs, from grade 7 to grade 12, allowing the older girls to reach out and mentor the younger girls. Clubs are completely student run which give girls an opportunity for leadership. And with the creation of the new Clubs Task Force this year, we now have an official committee for clubs! To my club heads, congrats and well done! Ms. Colwell, thank you so much for your support, the clubs task force was a great success. Keep on swinging your clubs BH! Liz

Samantha Shier: Community Service

The feeling one gets when they engage in meaningful community service is indescribable. The passion, dedication and drive present in each and every Branksome girl is truly astonishing and worth recognizing. Together, as a community, we have worked to better the lives of families and children around the world, especially with our theme for this year, education. Ms Colwell- Thanks for your guidance and support, each initiative would not have been possible without you. CS Council- Your spark and enthusiasm has made a huge impact on the school, thank you for making my job so enjoyable! BH- Thanks for a fantastic year. We have helped change the world. Love, Sammy

"Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile" -Albert Einstein

Jennifer Langill: Junior School

Being the Junior School prefect this year was a very new, fun and rewarding experience for me. I want to thank everybody who made it possible. To all the Junior School girls: your welcoming hugs and never-ending smiles made my year as your prefect incredible. I loved getting to know you and spending time over on the West side. To the Big Sisters: your commitment and creativity made our Big Sister Little Sister events and movie nights very exciting for the Junior School girls and they loved having you to look up to. Thank you very much to Ms Craig, Ms Beveridge and Ms Sabayle for your constant help with all of my events and ideas. Finally to the prefects: I could not have gotten through the year without the support and laughs. Thanks for everything! Love Jenny

Julia Black: Middle Division

Mid-Div's: You are definitely the "creme de la creme" of BH. Your grade spirit, your fantastic ideas, and your energy has made this year just about as good as it gets!!! From the Flare, to the movie nights, to the winter and spring celebrations, cookie decorating, and just plain old having fun, THANK YOU! Grade 7's, you really are hilarious; next year make sure you show the new grade 7's how its done! Grade 8's, I have always been impressed at your PINK spirit - keep it going and your diva-ness will get you far. Ms. Friesen, the Our House and Assembly Committee's, and the CAS reps: I really couldn't have done it without you and your amazing ideas. Prefects: laugh, smile, and have fun... pass it on! (we did it!)

Claire Liu: Residence

Residence has indeed become the home away from home to me in the past four years. Living with 68 girls from Taiwan, China, Hong Kong, Korea, Germany, US and Canada, I have grown to appreciate; I have learned to listen; I have managed to be independent. My fellow RC committees, WE MADE IT!! We organized the best special holiday dinners and edited the most hilarious and yet didactic skits and videos! The year would never have been the same without all of you, thanks for the enthusiasm and dedication. To all my friends who embarked the memorable Res journey with me, all your encouragements and warm hugs will always be remembered. To Ms. Smith, Ms. Cragg, thanks for the love, you are awesome mamas! And last, always remember boarding can be as much fun as you wish it to be, but you have to craft it yourself! Love, Claire

Juliana Faircloth: Sports

The pride and spirit surrounding the Branksome Hall Highlanders has never let me down. Our school's pride and spirit are what make up the athletic experience here. Athletes, your talent is impressive and inspiring and you make me and all the Highlanders proud. A huge thank you goes out to the scorers and timers, your help has been much appreciated. Coaches, you make sports happen, thank you. Ms. Colwell, Mrs. Narjes, thank you for all your time and effort this year. Mrs. Smith, thank you so much for all of your help, I couldn't have done it without you! To the Prefects: thank you for your endless support and keep sparkin' that spirit!
"The 5 Ss of sports training are: stamina, speed, strength, skill, and spirit; but the greatest of these is spirit." -Ken Doherty
Keep the spirit alive Highlanders! Love Juliana

Hillary Ball: Student Government

Student Government represents some of the aspects of Branksome life that we all love and value most: a unified community, passionate students and teachers and the fun spirit of the school. It's been a privilege to serve as this year's Student Government Prefect and I'm grateful for the opportunity I've had to work with enthusiastic and committed students and teachers from all facets of school life. To the Grade Reps – you have all truly shown your capacity for effective leadership. Thank you to Mrs. Fabian, Mr. McVay, Mr. Schroter, Mrs. Mustos, Ms. Koscec and Ms. Friesen for lending your time and voices to improve school life. Ms. Colwell, Mrs. Weinstock and Ms. Bolté: thank you for your guidance and support throughout the year. To the Prefects, I can't imagine a better group of girls to laugh through this year with. Love, Hillary

Student Leadership

Nicole Thornburrow:

Alumnae & Parents' Association Representative:

It has been such an honour being this year's Advancement Representative. It has been a pleasure working all year long with both the Parent and Alumnae Associations. For the first year, these two roles were combined and it allowed me to experience exciting opportunities and to develop a wider understanding of the Branksome community as a whole. I have enjoyed being involved these special aspects of the Branksome community, either through my reports or through helping out with various events. I would like to thank all of the members of both the Parent and Alumnae Associations. As well, thank you to Ms. Pimenoff and Ms. Weinstock in particular for their continuous support and enthusiasm. I wish the best of luck to these associations and to the student representatives in the future. Keep well the road!

Class of 2010

TORI ABBOTT
MacGregor, 2004-2010, Ms Stegenga
I can't believe that after six years it is time to leave. Although IB was a challenge I am grateful for everyone who supported me along the way! Mom and Dad: without you I may not have completed my EE or passed French but with your support I got through it all! I love you. Ben & Chuie, I'll miss you tons next year! Thanks to all my teachers who were always available to help! To my friends: thanks for a great time and I hope our friendships don't stop here. It is only the beginning. K&J: thanks for always being there for me, you'da best! South Africa girls: It was the best experience of my life, thanks for making it so special! I just called to say I love you! Now that IB is done I can't help but be excited for what's to come! Life is either a daring adventure or nothing - Helen Keller. xox Tori
MOST LIKELY TO charm her professors with her laugh.

SHANNON AIKMAN-JONES
Ross, 2004-2010, Mr. Baker
These past 6 years have been a blur. I have so many great memories; from the Flare to Formal, from Quebec to Geneva Park, it has been a blast. Though at times it was stressful, it was definitely worth it. To my friends: I love you all and thank you for all the support and laughs no matter what. You guys are the best. DS -my other half, I could not have done it without you. Mom and Dad thank you for always being there and lending a helping hand, you have both taught me so much. I love you. To the class of 2010- we have finally made it through. Every single one of you is amazing and I will miss each of you. I couldn't have asked for a better grade. Congrats grads 2010! Love you all! xo
MOST LIKELY TO be in the one woman production of We Will Rock You.

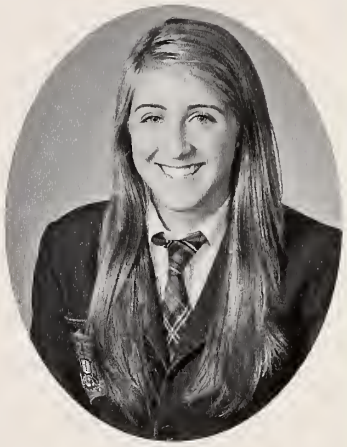
VICKI ALEXOPOULOS
McAlpine, 2006-2010, Mr. McVay
We did it guys; no more uniform infractions or IB exams. Can you believe it? BH, thanks for challenging me. To my teachers, thank you for inspiring me. Mom, dad, Van, De; thanks for all the support you've given me and for inspiring me to do my best. Randa&Lo, we made it from beginning to end together and I don't know what I would have done without you both. Maggpie; VAML4eva gal I love you. Grace, thank you for being my rock. Lou, I expect pasta runs. Dil, you always got me out of my pickles.F,K(my fairies)S,M,D.R,K&O; thanks for making my days filled with laughter and love. Grads of '10; I can't even begin to tell you guys how proud I am we did it, and how much I'll miss you all. Keep on rockin' in the free world, and all that jazz.

MOST LIKELY TO live her life as a fairytale.

HILLARY BALL
Douglas, 2004-2010, Mr. Pinto
Branksome has felt more like a home than a school and has brought me to the people who have made these past six years unforgettable. Juliana, our friendship (for six solid years and more to come) means the world to me and I honestly can't imagine a better friend than you. Emac and KG, thanks for keeping me laughing. JHowe, from baby pals to grad pals, you've been an incredible friend. Jenna, buddies for life. JBlack, never-ending love. To my teachers, thank you for your support & knowledge. Mom and Dad, I am so grateful for the opportunity that you gave me to attend this school - thank you for your unwavering love and support. Matt, you're the best big bro I could ever ask for - thanks for sharing your infinite wisdom. We did it, Grads of 2010 - let's keep the sisterhood alive! Love, Hill
MOST LIKELY TO be MVP of Cambridge's softball and badminton teams.

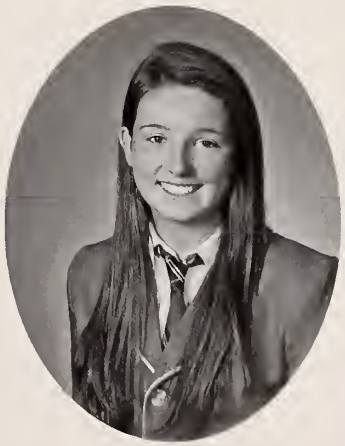
LAURA BAUM
Campbell, 2006 - 2010, Ms Gerland
My years at Branksome have hopefully prepared me well as I continue my education. Branksome challenged me to strive for the best and to achieve my full potential in academics as well as outside the classroom. I would like to thank my teachers, friends, and family who have impacted my life. Ms. Stumborg, I truly appreciate the work we did together in researching my specific and personal university goals. Mom and Dad: you have encouraged and supported me through everything, and served as inspiring role models, guiding me to live humbly and honestly while always caring for others. Daniel and Jonathan: by having two brothers who are very different yet share so many terrific traits, I have learned tolerance, compassion, and an appreciation for individuality. Congratulations to all the grads of 2010!!
MOST LIKELY TO be a female body builder.

NORA BEQAJ
Scott, 1998-2010, Ms Mouftah
It's about time. The experiences I have had here and the things I have learned will stay with me forever but now I am ready to take my next step. Mom: For your love & continuous support at every game and performance. Dad: For allowing me room to grow, you have taught me more than you know. Em: You've paved the way and never forgot about love and laughter. Bro: You introduced me to your wonderful world of fun & given me every opportunity to enjoy it. Jacky, Sammy & El Diablo: You 3 have made this last year incredible and never seize to impress me, jump around! Stumbie & Mouf's: Kept my spirits high & encouraged me through everything. Punj & Chief: You know how much you mean to me, thanks for hanging around. B: For every summer at the lake. Adios amigos, it's been a real treat. Num.
MOST LIKELY TO always have a boyfriend.



ALEXANDRA BETHLENFALVY
Campbell, 2008-2010, Ms McCann
Well Branksome keep well the road. As for me, I'm on to way bigger and better things. It's been a convivial 2 years at BH, and I loved almost every minute of it. Mom- loved being the teacher's daughter. Dad- thanks for the 7am drives. Allegra- Justin Bieber is yours. Nicky- Ovechkin dominates. Mike-I can park now. In the future, I will never own a forest green piece of clothing. Mystère et Boule de Gomme lives on- Caroswine & 3 shot best managars in the anc. Nort, Steve, Ayer, Scarf, Tay & Twin: I own you. My theatre geeks, I will always be your Truffaldino. By reunion time I be the next Miley. I will be fearless and a superstar- forever & always. SISTER2010D.
"Life is a climb, but the view is great from the top"
MOST LIKELY TO become first lady as Mrs. Nick Jonas & be a tween for life.

JULIA BLACK
Douglas, 2004-2010, Mr. Pinto
I can't believe it's over! Mum and Dad: Thanks for being so supportive and giving me the freedom to do my own thing. Meg and Sarah: From laughing at Soph's "O Canada" at dinner, to awesome days at Ulusaba, I love you guys. Soph: When you read this for inspiration, I'll be 31, but we better be tight. Your actually adorable, I'll miss you! Liz: Thnx 4 da mmrs: Salabwek, WOW JAW!, School Boys '08, V-fest, battling it out on the ERG, homecoming, and ice cubes - your like the sister I never had (jokes...)! Scheidz: Electric circuits through braces and fingertip stomata, muahaha. Hill (Karl): I'm glad somebody understands me, ilu! JH: Thanks for being my Douglas twin. Rowers, Prefects, and the 2010 sisterhood, its been FUN!
MOST LIKELY TO go on "safari" with her side bag in one hand and cruzer in the other



DIANA BLESKO
Johnston, McAlpine, 1998-2010, Ms Hebdon
A bittersweet departure marks the end to my twelve long years in plaid. Branksome- here's to you! It has been an incredible journey filled with so many memories and I still can't believe it is all over. I owe many thanks to the school for watching me grow up as well as to every teacher who has helped me along the way. Thanks for all the support and opportunities you have given me. Mom and Dad- thank you so much for all the love and giving me this amazing experience. Mom- I love you more than you can imagine. You work harder then anyone and I appreciate everything you have done for me since we came to Canada. To all the girls who have been there for me, you're the best and love you all. Finally, cheers to the class of 2010!
MOST LIKELY TO be a Romanov and have a beautiful Russian Royal Family

CHLOE BLOUIN
Ross, 2004-2010, Mr. Baker
"Give a girl the right shoes, and she can conquer the world" Despite not always having the right school shoes, BH has given me the ability to conquer the world. To my girls, thanks for 6 years of laughs&memories. EP- Well-behaved women rarely make history. Since day1 we've been best friends. From Quebec to CR& everything in-between, you've become my sister (or twin?) - Thanks 4 being there, & always remember to "take1 for the team." Mum&Dad- Thanks for giving me your unconditional love & support, even when I wasn't exactly lovable. M,M,E-I love you to the moon and back. A wise girl kisses but doesn't love, listens but doesn't believe, and leaves before she is left. So BH, in our bittersweet breakup I leave u not as a distant memory, but as one to be remembered for eternity. 2010s, I'll miss you all! CB
MOST LIKELY TO be the next big youtube celebrity

REBECCA BORKOWSKY
Douglas, 2007-2010, Mr. Pinto
There's nothing like knowing you've accomplished something absolutely and undeniably cosmic... like high school.
So long Branksome, and thanks- it's been internationally minded.
See you in Jerusalem!

MOST LIKELY TO move to Israel only to find out she misses her family too much and then move back

NICOLE BRYCK
McLeod, 2004-2010, Mrs. Raj
After 6 years at Branksome this is it. I'd like to thank the grade for being so wonderful and supportive GRADS 2010! Specifically I would like to thank a few girls who have been really special to me. You know who you are and I will remember you forever. My two sisters, Marielle and Carolyn, you clearly rock so never stop. Life would not be the same without you two. Rileycat, you have brought me through some rough times, thanks for hanging out with me throughout my late nights of homework. Mum and Dad, I guess the expression that fits you two the most is "through thick and thin", so thanks. Ms. Stumborg you always impress me with your ability to understand me like no other, it's weird. To all my friends at Branksome I will miss you a lot, good luck. Here's to life. Cheers.
MOST LIKELY TO be the longest lasting student at Brescia.

RACHEL BU

MacLean, 2005-2010, Mr. Porter

It's hard to believe that it's all over. I still remember the first day I put on my uniform, a routine that has been practiced every morning since then. I know it so well that I mastered the skills of sleeping and getting dressed at the same time. Of course, despite the fact that sometimes it's inside out!! To mom & dad: Thank you for all your support, love and care, without you I wouldn't become who I am today! I love you both!! To Emin: knowing you, nothing squashy is going to be said here, but one simple word - Thank you! To my Sis: "are you guys sisters or twins!" we get that a lot don't we! Not only we are sisters but we are also " partner in crime"& "double trouble" =P To England: what will I do without you in university! No more Anna as the perfect roommate! Finally To class of 2010: Congrats we did it!!

MOST LIKELY TO get paint on every item she owns.

JACQUI CARL

McAlpine, 2004-2010, Ms Hebdon

From putting on my first kilt of plaid, to the red GY tie, these past six years have been life changing. Tori: Wow. I do not know what I would do without you. You have always been my role-model, my best friend and of course, personal shopper. Through thick and thin, we've made it. You're the best. Mom, Dad, Ed and Tina: Thank you for the opportunities, and adventures you have provided for me. The love and support you have always given me has shaped who I am today. I hope to always make you proud. Matt, you rule. To my best friends: Between the laughs and memories, I will love you forever. We will always be together- no matter what. I can't believe WE DID IT. The fun has JUST begun - Life is an adventure! BH, we will never forget you. Girls: congrats. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS. Jacqui

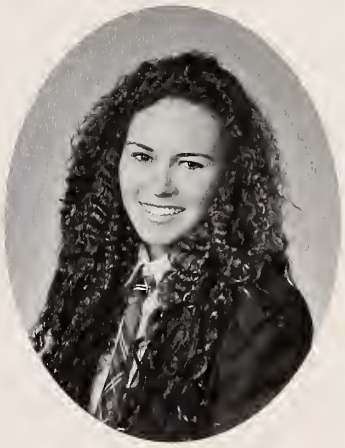
MOST LIKELY TO always have just another quick question

ALESSANDRA CECCONI

MacLean, 2005-2010, Mr. Porter

These past five years Branksome has helped me grow from the awkward home-schooled island girl, to who I am today. Drama geeks- we're fantastic. MMGVCPR and all other rezies- from hall parties and rockets to music videos and sims, I love you all and could not have survived with out you. S&R my musical theatre loves- we will be stars for life. J- you are amazing and life will always be a musical. A- survivor creations, all-nighters, surfing, concerts, where would I be without you? Everyone one else, you know who you are- thanks for making high school a blast. Ms. S- thanks for dealing with me and managing my life. Mum, Dad, Toby, Belly, Quinn, and Rubs- thanks for putting up with my complaining and super hyper skype calls. I love you all! I never thought the end would come, and now that it's here I'm going to miss it all so much! Xo Alessandra

MOST LIKELY TO forever model for Branksome because her hair represents multiculturalism so beautifully



JESSICA CHAITON

Grant, MacLean, 2001-2010, Ms Ketchum

Though IB seemed to be just a fancy euphemism for stress, my BH experience is one I will never forget. To my friends, thanks for making my high school memories humourous and unforgettable, and for letting the good times roll - you guys rule. Twinz: long live the CPC. Allie: thanks for only being a 45 minute train ride away, which made being an only child so much easier. Mom and Dad: ain't got nothin but love, eight days a week - I'll miss your random facts, guitar jams, and obscure comedy next year. GY's 2010: it's been a blast - thanks for the memories

MOST LIKELY TO nap through important life moments.

KATIE CHARTER
Bruce, Ross, 1999-2010, Mr. Baker
10 YEARS of my life has flown by while at Branksome. With the help and support of my teachers, friends and parents I have become who I am today. Without my parents I would never have had the opportunity to come here. The friends that I created here I know will last forever; from laughing so hard we got ab workouts to cramming for tests via Skype. I could not have made it to my graduation day without all of you!! And HEY "THE TASSEL'S WORTH THE HASSLE" ;) 2010 BEST YEAR EVERRRRR!!!!!! Buh Bye Branksome.

MOST LIKELY TO be a full on gangster for life.

RAIMAH CHOWDHURY
Douglas, 2008-2010, Mr. Pinto
I could never imagine before how much two years away from home would change my entire life. Although it is my second and final year at Branksome, I can honestly say I have learned everything that I needed to. You guys have been amazing and I will never be able to find the right words to express how grateful I am to have all of you in my life. Kutta shour, you should know that I could never go on without you. To my people in Dhaka, you have my heart always. If I could relive my years with you guys, I would do it every single time. Papa, thank you for always being there even though you're half the world away. Thank you to all the teachers who have gotten us through IB, it's been a long two years but we're finally done. Class of 2010: congratulations, you guys all have great futures ahead of you. xo
MOST LIKELY TO live in a castle with the perfect prince.

MEG CLARK
Douglas, 2007 - 2010, Mr. Pinto
One year of fretting about university. Two years of best Classics Conferences. Two years of IB work. Three years of 12-hour schooldays for the play. Three years of six o'clock curfew on weekdays. Three years of the best friends that anyone could ever know. Thanks guys, really. What am I going to do next year? I have no idea, but I can only hope that it will be just as awesome.

MOST LIKELY TO hurt herself. On anything. Seriously. Anything. Even a pillow.

JULIA COLUCCI
Douglas, 2004-2010, Mr. Pinto
To my teachers from grade 7 to grade 12, you have made a tremendous impact on my education, far beyond the walls of Branksome. To my friends, you are an integral part of my life and I value our friendships a lot more than you think. It has been a privilege hanging out and I will miss that the most. To my parents, you are perfect. To William, Thoreau and Angelica, you make me so happy and I am very thankful that I am your sister and friend. Branksome, it has been an experience. Thank you for the opportunities you have given me.

MOST LIKELY TO be haunted by Ben.

ELIZABETH CUNNINGHAM

Grant, MacLean, 2002-2009, Mrs. Ketchum

BH has been such an unbelievable experience for me, from traveling to South Africa to debating all over Canada, this school has offered me all I could ask for. Mom, I am the person I am today because of all your love and encouragement. Daddy, I will always be your daddy's little girl. Sean, you're the greatest role model I could ever ask for, you have and always will be my inspiration. Letty, my 2nd mom, don't know how I will live without you next year. Mrs. Z, there is always one teacher in high school that you will never forget, and for me, that's you. MH: my partner in crime, BBC will live forever. To my close friends, thanks for all the laughter and unforgettable memories from Starbucks runs to dancing all night, I loved every moment. To the girls in GY, don't stop believin'! Love you girls forever! XO Liz

MOST LIKELY TO move to the Hamptons and wear tennis outfits for the rest of her life

MARANDA CURTOSI

Scott, 2006-2010, Ms Mouftah

"It always seems impossible until it's done", but we can now say that we have done the impossible! The sleepless nights, the caffeine fixes, the days when you don't go to school because you just have WAY too much work to get done [and don't lie, we've all done it] are now merely memories of our last years at Branksome Hall. The many friendships formed within the walls of BH are as tightly knit as the plaid we love; let us try to keep them alive as we proceed into the next phase of our lives. To my amazing parents: I love you, thank you so much for being your wonderful selves! You really are the ones who have made me who I am today. Now that this is all said and done, CONGRATULATIONS GRADS OF 2010! Good luck to you all! Lots of love, xoxo.

MOST LIKELY TO marry a guy in a blue sweater.

MORGAN CUTHBERTSON

McAlpine, 2004-2010, Ms Hebdon

Its funny how quickly these years go by. I know this is my last shout-out to the school, and as I'm sure most of you know, when I'm given an opportunity like this I never shut up. So here we go. To NMB and all the sailors, I wouldn't be who I am now without you (I'd be sane...). To my Branksome besties, you've endured all that my quirky attitude has to offer. Love you. To all those that believed in me when I didn't, I cant thank you enough. DG's: I will never forget you. DAD: you're my best friend and my idol. Come to university with me? Okay great. It won't be the same next year without you. MOM: wouldn't have gotten here without you. Literally. Willa: Savor your Branksome years, they go by quickly. Word of advice for my now past Branksome life: keep your eye on the windward mark. Have a good one!

MOST LIKELY TO invent a new triathalon: running, sailing, and telling Man jokes.

ANGELA DAI

McAlpine, 2008-2010, Ms Hebdon

Though Branksome has only been a part of my journey for two years, it means so much more. From great friends and great times, to stressful labs and late start days, every bit of these two years has been special to me. Mom, Dad, I can't express in words how much I want to thank you. You both have been my biggest inspiration and support. My teachers, thank you for the wonderful learning experience. My residence gals, I love you all. CL, I truly believe our friendship will last forever. You are family to me. SW, your humor+ my laughs =a beautiful friendship, KM, no you, no me. CL, our off tune singing makes the world go round. AK (Galicha), best Math partner awesome friend! Thank you for everything. FL, I will always be here for you. JF, from SZ to Toronto! Congrats and best wishes to class of '10! Cheers!

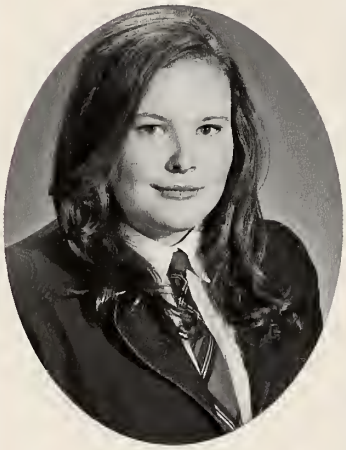
MOST LIKELY TO become friends with Peter Chao

ALIYA DANIELS
McLeod, 2004-2010, Mrs. Raj
William Faulkner said, "The past is never dead - it is not even past." Even though I'm graduating - moving on to the next stage of my life, my six years at Branksome will be with me every day of my future. Branksome offered me endless opportunities. From Elm Street to Rose Avenue, and all the way to South Africa, the experiences I have had are unforgettable.

MOST LIKELY TO become a pro-athlete.

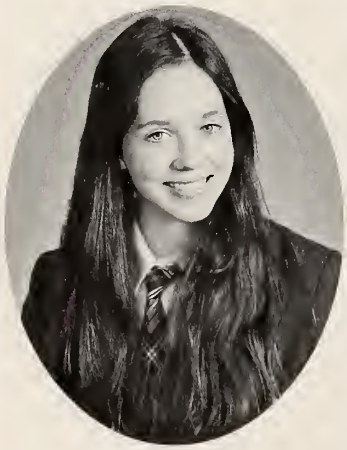
LAURA DE VUONO
McAlpine, 2006-2010, Ms Wood, Mr. McVay
Although I've only been at Branksome for four years, it really feels like a huge chunk of my life has been spent in these halls, and I can't believe that my time here is already over. I want to thank my parents for all of the support and love that they have always given me; I probably haven't said it enough, but I will always love and appreciate you. I also want to thank my friends and teachers for everything that they have done for me throughout these four years. Lastly, to the graduating class of 2010: congratulations! We're finally free.

MOST LIKELY TO save the world with her kindness.



LAUREN DINELEY
Campbell, 2004-2010, Ms McCann
Reflecting on the last six years, I have a ridiculous number of people to thank. As much as I would like to thank each one of these people individually, it is simply impossible in this limited space. Instead, I wish to say some general thank yous that I hope will carry the same weight. To my friends, you girls have been there for me day in and day out. I will miss you all so much next year and I will cherish the memories. To my teachers, I can say in all honesty that I would not have made it through without you. Thank you for all that you do. Now I must give a shout out to the Rugby and Field Hockey teams, especially the coaches. You are all amazing. Finally and most importantly, to my family. Mom, Dad, CieCie and Ali, I love you all so much. I credit all that I have accomplished to your undying love and support.
MOST LIKELY TO know more about China than you.

SYDNEY EDMONDS
McLeod, 2008-2010, Mrs. Raj
Thanks to my family, teachers and friends, it's been great!



MOST LIKELY TO be the most accomplished multi-tasker in life: school, work, friends...modeling & eating.

ANNA ENGLAND

Campbell, 2006-2010, Ms McCann

A lot of grad message start with "when I first came to Branksome" or "wow these years have flown by" but it's very difficult to think of another way to start to say goodbye. Someone once told me that "your best is always good enough" and although at the time I thought it wasn't, I was proven wrong. Even though I have only been here for four years, I feel as though it's been a lifetime. The wonderful friends I've made and the things I've learned only make me proud to say I went to Branksome. Thanks Bu for understanding my insanity! Thank you so much daddy for your support and always making me "push the envelope". Moon and back! Robbie: thanks lummox for your constant support and good humor. And to those of you "livin' the dream", thank you so much! Love you big times! Congratulations grads of 2010!

MOST LIKELY TO own the biggest Starbucks to inevitably destroy it.

HEATHER EVANS

Scott, 2001-2010, Ms Mouftah

Wow I can't believe I'm finally writing my grad message. I feel like I've been at Branksome for most of my life (ironically I have), and I can't believe it's all coming to an end. To my parents: I want to thank you so much for giving me such a great opportunity to go to this amazing school. It meant so much! And to my friends: By the time your reading this, IB exams and CAS will be over. Congrats! I really don't know how we managed to fit so much into such a short year, but somehow we did it. Also thanks to all the teachers and staff, you really made this year amazing! Branksome you've been such a big part of my life so far and I'm sure you will be for years to come (i.e. thanks to higher-level math first year calculus should be a breeze). Congratulations everyone!!

MOST LIKELY TO show up at her wedding wearing apple bottom jeans and boots with the fur.

JULIANA FAIRCLOTH

Johnston, McAlpine, 2001-2010, Mrs. Malcolm, Ms Hebdon

After nine years at Branksome, it's now time to graduate. The experiences I have had, teachers I have learned from and friendships I have made here have been unforgettable. HB: you challenge me and always make me laugh, thanks. EM: thanks for the love, see you on the grass. JH: you shine with optimism, thanks for sharing it. KG: je t'aime beaucoup. Schleidz: see you in the future as a mad scientist. GinaH: BH to SA, it's been great. SA16: hang your hopes on a star. Mom+Dad: thanks for everything you've given me and always supporting me. Jin: you've always been there, just hop on my unicycle. Joe: keep rockin' and thanks for the laughs. Friends: I've had a blast, but it's just the beginning. Grads of 2010: Keep the sisterhood strong. Live large, see you around! Love Jubes

MOST LIKELY TO breed a family of evil genius Pussycat Dolls

TORY FERGUSON

Campbell, 2005-2010, Ms McCann

These past five years have gone by so quickly. To all my awesome Branksome friends, I honestly wouldn't have made it through without you. You know who you are. To all my fantastic teachers over the years, thank you so much for pushing me to my full potential. To Mom and Dad, thank you for supporting me and getting me through all of the ups and downs. To Alex, you've made my last year at Branksome so much more memorable. To Jessica, your encouragement throughout IB is what got me to where I am today. To Jack, you may be small now but you'll be where I am now within a blink of an eye. For everyone I've left behind, stay on course and keep your eye on the next jump.

MOST LIKELY TO be a guest star on Grey's Anatomy as the injured horseback rider.

ALEXANDRA FIEDER

McAlpine, 2006- 2009, Mr. McVay

Where to start... Branksome has provided me with a great education and I am so thankful for that. But what I am most thankful for are the people Branksome brought to me. I love too many people at this school to mention, so you guys know who you are. Honourable mentions: Farm jam is something I am going to remember forever. WWK is lifelong. BV is always short but sweet. Also thanks marky and claudz, you give me endless support and are the best parents ever. Andrew even though we fight, I couldn't ask for a better brother. To sum up I leave you all with this "Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising up every time we fail." GY's 2010, it's hard to believe but WE DID IT! Love you forever golden girls!

MOST LIKELY TO laugh when making a mistake driving

ERIKA FOLK

Duncan and Mcleod, 2002-2010, Mrs. Raj.

I can't believe graduation is here, the final last day of school. To my favourite ladies in the whole world (haha), I think normally people here insert a couple momentos that sum up their good times together, but frankly there aren't a couple to do us justice. To Mama and Daddykins, thanks for everything, and for laughing at my jokes. To Elvie, I love you and salamat, really, without your doughnut bribes to keep my eyepatch on, or to keep walking when my legs got tired who knows where I'd be. Alexis, you'll always be my best friend; we're goin' on a holiday, now gonna take a villa or a small chalet on the costa Del Magnifico- the cost of livin' is so low, yeah, gonna be so neat. You know we'll still be twistin' by the pool for years to come.

MOST LIKELY TO never take off her motorcycle boots.

JANINE FUNG

Douglas, 2004-2010, Mr. Pinto

Despite the crazy workload, I wouldn't spend my high school years any other way. Teachers: thanks for everything (especially extensions) Ms.J: thank you so much for being there for me whenever I needed help. Spare buddies 4eva. Thespians & Ms. Friend: Don't worry... I'll be back for Sunday bagels. Mama&Soulja Dad: I'll always be up to no good. Sis: you are the best sister anyone can have. REMEMBER: boys only want ONE thing. BH sisters,deedee,CK: I can't begin to describe how much I love you all and I am so fortunate to have met such incredible girls who tolerate my insanity. I know we'll keep in touch as long as food is involved ;). Fly free, fairies! GY'10: REUNION AT ROSALIE'S!!!

MOST LIKELY TO embody Brighella for life, and wear her mask in university.

ELINOR GOLDHAR

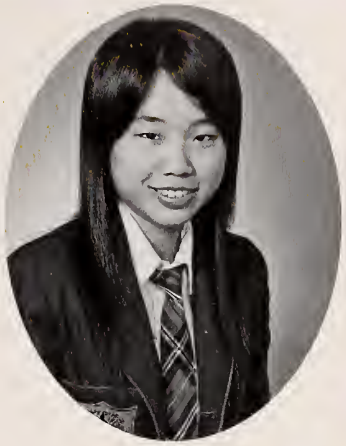
Ross, 2004-2010, Mr. Baker

"Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened". I will never forget the past six years I have spent at Branksome. Thanks for the memories along the way and for making me the person I am today. Thanks for all the spirit weeks, the many meetings, and for the days I wondered why I bothered going home. Mom and Dad: Thanks for all the love, early morning drives and for always believing in me. Teachers: Thanks for holding my hand while you challenged me. To my friends: Thanks for making my time at Branksome that much better. Lastly, to the class of 2010: Thanks for being the most amazing grade. It's been a wild ride, so thanks for seeing me through it all and for...everything! I will miss you all and I wish you all the best in university and beyond. Long live the sisterhood!!

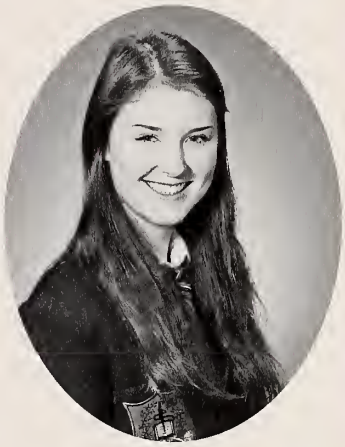
MOST LIKELY TO make sure you're feeling better.

YUN GONG
Douglas, 2008 -2010,Ms Danard
The two years in Branksome Hall girl school have been a unique experience in my life. Thank you, my family and all my supportive friends. I will always cherish those wonderful memories - Emily held a birthday party for me in her house, making me feel home, warm and welcome during my first year in Canada; Ailin was always there to be my best listener and cheer me up... My sister was always the best companion on the phone and MSN whenever I experienced solitude and obstacles. I am really grateful for the help and advice from my teachers and guidance counselor. Now I have become more mature and am looking forward to the exciting years of college life. Best wishes to all the Branksome graduate girls !

MOST LIKELY TO: be a fiction writer who creates imaginary stories about herself marrying to Robert P.

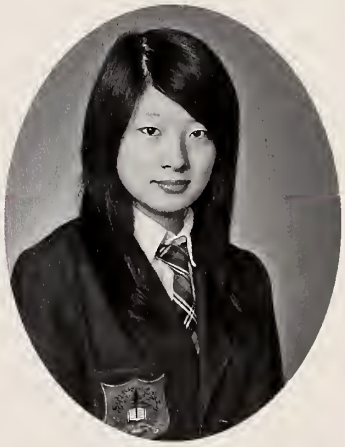


AMANDA GOVAN
Douglas, 2005-2010, Ms Danard
Five years of life at BH have gone by so fast. I still remember when I first visited; I fell in love with the plaid kilts, ties, walls, and couches and immediately jumped at the chance to attend this real life Hogwarts. Sadly, I found IB rather than witchcraft and wizardry, but I have grown to love BH nonetheless. To all my teachers: thank you for inspiring me and putting up with all my procrastination and sick days; three years of English with Ms. Sutherland has shaped my love of literature. Ms. Stumborg: thank you for always guiding me in the right direction. Mum & Dad: I could not survive without you, thank you for propping me up when I need it most, love you. Friends: you have made these years memorable, thanks for sharing all the laughter and stress. I don't know how I'll dress myself each morning. Cheers!
MOST LIKELY TO be sick on her wedding day.



AILIN HE
Douglas, 2005-2010, Ms Danard
I would like to thank my family for sending me to Branksome. As I sit here and reflect on the past 5 years, I am smiling unconsciously. My teachers and classmates here have made a huge impact on my life. They gave me support and suggestions which helped me to overcome many obstacles. I even met the best fiction writer who listens to my complaints without complaints —Yun Yun. Next year we will all be in different places for university, and I will treasure the invaluable time I have spent with all of you.

MOST LIKELY TO never get diabetes.



JENNA HERMAN
McLean, 2004-2010, Ms Ketchum
I came 6 years ago, with a mouth full of braces and a mind to be molded. I now leave, straight teeth and all, with an idea of who I am and the person I would like to be. Branksome, you have helped me to do this. I thank my many challenging teachers who have inspired me and taught me about the world I am about to enter. To my friends; you have made the days short and the memories great. Erin; you taught me to "live life and accept your flaws". Hillary; since our first date you have amazed me with your humour and wit. Jubes; you make me smile everyday and we will always have SA. Mom and Dad; thank you for your love, wisdom and encouragement. Leah, perhaps the love of my life, you have taught me so much and helped me to learn on my own. To all of GY; "good luck with exploring the infinite abyss".
MOST LIKELY TO "eat men like air" -Sylvia Plath

MADDY HICKS

McAlpine, 2004 - 2010, Ms Hebdon

"so no one told you life was going to be this way" (Friends theme song) Branksome has been an amazing experience for me. I will never forget my years I've had at Branksome. Thank you to all my amazing teachers I've had throughout my years. To my friends you guys are the best. I could have never gone through these years without you; you've made BH that much better. BBC will live on forever. WWK times will continue to live strong. To mom and dad thank you for being there for me and helping me with everything and for giving me so many opportunities. To SISTA J you are the best sister on this planet; I'll miss you next year. To all the 2010 girls I've had a great six years with you and I'll never forget them; keep on rockin! DON'T STOP BELIEVING!

MOST LIKELY TO have dance parties in her room for the rest of her life.

JENNIFER HINDS

Gordon, MacGregor, 1999-2010, Ms Stegenga

As cliché as it sounds, I can't believe high school is almost over. I greatly appreciate the help of all my friends. Thanks to my teachers for everything, and a shout out to STG, of course. We're the best advisor group around. Most of all, I appreciate the support of my parents and my brother. I couldn't have done it without you. It's been a great decade.

"It's only half past 12, but I don't care. It's 5 o'clock somewhere."
Jenna Hinds

MOST LIKELY TO get married and live out the rest of her life on a boat.

EMILY HINES

MacGregor, 2004-2010, Ms Stegenga

GY year: red plaid, applications, friends and memories. Parents: Branksome means so much to me, thank you for the opportunity. Teachers: I owe you a lot, I just never admitted it until now. Advisor group: how did we luck out? Best advisor ever. Julia, Dil, Tory S, Erica, Laura, Rachel and Raimah: The laughs will never end. SSUNS, IB, EE, UCC, formal and everything in between was made the biggest joke and that is why I love each and every one of you. J.F, my banana, M.C, M.N, L.D you are the best friends a girl could have. The GYs: the golden girls, you are incredible always remember that. Branksome will always be in the back of our minds, but we will still have the friends we made here by our sides. Have fun next year!

MOST LIKELY TO remain a Miley Cyrus wannabe forever.

CHARLOTTE HOEFNER

Douglas, 2008-10, Mr. Pinto

Branksome for two years: well! Surely something you will never experience again. IB: something that tried (!) to steal my social life but failed. Res: I cannot wait to live on my own. BUT I probably need to take especially some of you with me Overall it wasn't too bad :P - I guess it was a pretty amazing most of the time. Mama, Papa: dies waer alles nicht moeglich gewesen wenn ihr nicht so viel Vertrauen in mich gehabt haettet. Danke dafuer und ich hoffe ich konnte euch stolz machen und euere Erwartungen erfuellen. Kathi: nur Eines, du bist der wichtigste Mensch in meinem Leben! Overall guys, thanks for the amazing time... Gosh darn it: I'M REALLY GONNA MISS YOU!!

MOST LIKELY TO go by bike, everywhere...really fast.

JULIA HOWE

Douglas, 2004-2010, Mr. Pinto

It seems like an eternity that we waited to be the ones in red, but now that it's here it's almost bittersweet. Branksome, you've shaped me into the person I am today, & brought me to teachers & coaches who've inspired me. Rowers & my core 4, you never cease to amaze me. You push me to be better than I am & for that I can't thank you enough. To my friends, you have kept me sane. You've made the karaoke louder, the laughs harder, the pictures better & the memories stronger. To my Lady Marmalade singing girls- EKJHE you know this is only the beginning. Mom,Dad,J,B&J, thanks for the late-night editing, endless support, love & opportunities. Finally, shout out to the Golden Girls of 2010, let the good times roll and keep shooting for those stars. You girls are the absolute best! Love always, Julia Howe

MOST LIKELY TO cough and rub her nose before she writes.

LYNN HUANG

Campbell, 2006-2010, Ms Gerland

Time passes so fast that I don't even notice. Looking back to when I was grade nine, the first day I arrived at Branksome, there was only two people including me who were in the resident. I couldn't sleep that night, I never felt that lonely before. Looking at myself now, I handled everything by myself, from a little girl who knows nothing to a girl who is graduating high school! When I leave Branksome, I will leave with satisfaction that I made lots of great memories with my friends that will last for a life time. I will always remember the days that I was at Branksome, I'll keep well the road and enjoy my next stage of growing in my life :D

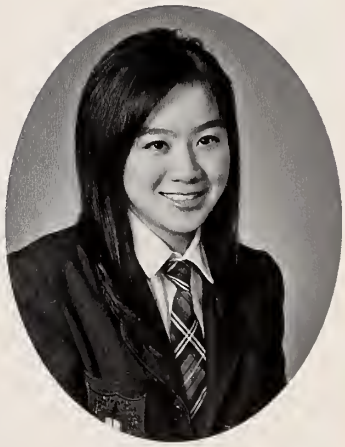
MOST LIKELY TO live on Pluto when she retires, a place she's dreamed of going to since she was born

BONITA HUI

McLeod, 1998-2010, Mrs. Raj

How strange it is that I've spent more than half my life at Branksome. It's been a memorable experience and it would not have been possible without the help and support of several people. Courtney: I will continue to await your daily email(s). You are a great friend whom I dearly trust. JPark: Geo, Finch, and hair cuts. Dwellings are a must visit. Jess W: I will think of you when I eat a donut. Continue sending me videos! Yvonne: It's been a pleasure discussing the complexities of life with another INTJ. I will miss giggling in the halls and "hopping" at the theaters with you. Amanda, Jess T, Kharis, Prudence, and Rosana: Never lose touch. Dad and Mom: Thanks for believing in me. I'll leave off with my favourite quote: "Out of intense complexities, intense simplicities emerge." -Winston Churchill

MOST LIKELY TO be tweety bird on her wedding day.



ALLISON HUNG

McAlpine, 2006-2010, Mr. McVay

I can't believe I'll finally get to graduate for my very first time! My four years at Branksome are about the longest period of time I've ever stayed in one school. Before coming here, I frequently switched from school to school and country to country and somehow always narrowly missed the graduating year. I also had many of my firsts here: first time at a girls' school, first kilt, first Spirit Week, first time tutoring and first time in 93789 different music ensembles simultaneously. Thank you to all my amazing friends, teachers and family who have inspired me to challenge myself and become a better person. I love you all! University definitely won't be the same without your constant handholding and of course, the awesome BranksomeNet. Good luck to all 2010 grads! We'll definitely make Branksome proud!

MOST LIKELY TO be Taiwan's Next Top Model

ALIA JADAD-GARCIA
Campbell, 2006-2010, Ms Gerland
I can't believe high school is over already! We have been at school for a long time now, but we are finally embarking on a new adventure of further education and opportunities! Where did all these years go? I would like to thank all my friends for being there for me during my painful mornings from dance the night before, or my random mental breakdowns. Also, all the girls who supported my eating habits and random runs to tuck to get more food. I would also like to thank my teachers for putting up with my hectic schedule and temporary moments of disorganization. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend such a diverse school with wonderful opportunities and for driving me to school for early morning practices. Thanks everyone for creating moments that I will never forget!

HANNAH H. JOHNSON
I came to Branksome to better myself academically, but these halls have given me so much more. Branksome, you have exceeded my expectations! You have given me life-long friends that I will never forget, and teachers who have challenged me to undertake tasks I would never have imagined I could accomplish before now. You have taught me to be who I am. Res girls: you have been my family for the past two years and I will always be there for you, as you have been for me. Thank you Mama and Dad for giving me Branksome. You have always supported me and believed that I could succeed, and now, thanks to you, I know that I can. Congratulations fellow GY's. From stepping into 7R2, to stepping into our yellow gradroom, I'd seen 5 years worth of GYs before getting here myself and thinking 'I can't possibly be as big and scary as them.' But apparently I've grown up without my knowledge, all thanks to some great people: to my teachers: thank you for your wisdom and your understanding; to my mom: thanks for giving me your strength; to my dad: I'll always be your pookie; to my bro: you've helped me more than you know; to my friends: thanks for putting up with me, I hope you realize how much I love you all. University sounds like a scary place, especially having to choose what to wear every day, but I feel that Branksome has prepared me, for which I am forever grateful. IB DONE HIGHSCHOOL!

BH has been amazing! Through fun times like dances and spares, to moments I thought I never would get through like EE and CAS diaries, there are many people who I hold responsible for my survival: AK and AC(at BH in spirit), LR, AJ, FR, & DP, I don't know what this would have meant without you. My teachers, who have never failed to tell me to tuck in my shirt and take off my nail polish, I will be forever grateful for the knowledge you have bestowed upon me. Mom and dad, I finally realized why you sent me to BH. Thank you. Most importantly however, Kaja-Pajaja: the nights you spent explaining fossil fuels and action packed physics questions have served me well. You are my big sis, mentor, role model, and "if you haven't met sisters as close as you, you don't know us!" GRADS'10: IB FEARLESS

Still remember the very first day of school, that shy girl who was not brave enough to ask where the student washroom is, went straight into the staff washroom and didn't even realize what's wrong...Two years gone by quickly, what she had gained from Branksome? Friendship, knowledge, confidence...and lots more! The two years at Branksome are certainly unforgettable! Thank you mom and dad for supporting me throughout all these years, thank you for giving me the chance to explore a whole new world at Branksome. Thank you teachers for all the patience and care, I appreciate all the effort you put to provide me with the best education. Thank you my dear friends for being with me, supporting each other throughout the tough IB years. I love you all and I will never forget all the great times at Branksome.

Branksome isn't just where I stayed up to study for countless nights, worked my head off to meet IB deadlines and juggled between 2 orals, 3 summatives and 2 tests at the same time. No, it isn't just that. Branksome is also where I had hysterical moments with my friends, cheered for ribs at dinner, and had WWIII against the ladybugs in my room. Thank you IB for truly uniting us, and all my friends for spicing up the hectic life here. Nevertheless, thank you Mom and Dad for providing me with the opportunity to study abroad and for still loving me when I acted like a nasty teenager. There is so much more to say than this little text box can hold. Now we are all set and ready to go—with nothing to lose, and everything to remember it all by. "The roots of education are bitter but the fruit is sweet". I hear that. First and foremost I want to thank my family. Mommy and Daddy, I am forever indebted to you for everything you have given me. Thank you for supporting me when I insisted on doing everything the hard way. I love you both so much. David: What can I say? You're "the Baby"; you broke the ice and set the bar. Heather: Thanks for being such a lolster. I lucked out in the sister department ...but then again, so did you. Thanks to my teachers, those who put up with my excuses and antics, but more importantly those who did not; I'm better for it. Thank you to Art for challenging me. To the class of 2010: No more pencils, no more books, and no more teachers' dirty looks. It's been a slice Branksome. I had fun. You best not forget me, Kmac out.

For the three years that I have been at BH, I have to say I have learned a lot.BH has opened the doors for a new way of thinking and modern education. Through the many challenges I have encountered throughout my years at Branksome, the support from my friends ,family and teachers has definitely kept me standing. Without the love and support of my best friends(who were always there for me during my ups and downs shall I say?) and family I would of never been able to come this far. Even though, the past two years have been one of the most stressful, I'm definitely delighted but at the same time upset that I have reached the end of my high school journey. However, I 'm excited for what is to come in the future. I wish all the GYs the best for the years to come! I can't emphasize how much I'm grateful to have Mama,Dady, Shireen,Karim, Golgol and Akiki thank you all so much, I love you guys.

Well, heck, we're all here already: and honestly, I still can't believe it to some extent. But all the hardships and sleepless nights will not be forgotten, and they will only make us stronger (to all the meds and coffee too, haha). Thank you to all my teachers who have been patient with me and all my mistakes that came with me, and to all my friends from here that will never be forgotten. Never the least, endless gratitude and love for my parents and family for such opportunities, and of course for staying by my side even when I acted all grown up when I'm not. Thank you Branksome, but I've put down my pen for this chapter of my life, because I long to start my next. I wish for us all to find something to do, something to love, and something to hope for.

6 years of waking up half an hour before class, running home to get a binder in the duration of "going to the bathroom" and grabbing "emergency snack" when no one else had brought food. Defining "to what extent does the kilt remain 3 inches above the knee." Considering your social life a combination of Starbucks and Timmy runs. Remembering the crazy antics at Branksome and not regretting them for a moment. This is it Branksome. I will always remember the camp- feeling you gave me, the amazing teachers you provided me, the amazing friends I made within your brick walls. 6 years later, wearing our red ties with pride, I now feel as though the world awaits us. The story is not over, it's just beginning. Congrats grads of 2010! :P We made it :] I love you all!! XO Elana

Graduating from Branksome, I am sure of one thing: I will be lost without my plaid kilt next year regarding fashion. I can remember my first school picture, with my tie up, ready to take the school ID picture that will haunt my card for the next 6 years. From the BH trips that have left me with crazy memories: from pig ears in Quebec, to OB '09, to strolling the streets of Den Haag and walking the aisles of my favorite Walmart, BH thanks for the good times. To mi padres, thank you for supporting my most stressful moments, and helping me always think outside the box. I love you. To S&D: From your help delivering forgotten uniform items to ...everything!-I will miss you next year. And to all my bambinas: from lunch bunch to secret santas, you made these years unforgettable. WOW! Still can't believe... five dramatic years as both residence and day student at Branksome has finally come to a closure. Making unforgettable moments on my journey to today would not have been possible without all of you: Congratulations GYs. Sleepless nights, countless Starbucks cups and struggles with summative will bolster us to be strong. Most importantly, I grant endless love and gratitude for my family: daddy, mommy and Heejin for such opportunity and always being supportive by being on my side. Thank you to all my friends; our time will never be forgotten. Sherbourne has been the most enjoyable and homelike dwelling place with you roomie. I believe all things in life happen for a reason and my attendance to Branksome has been one of them. When I walked into the halls of Branksome at age twelve, none of my purpose was clear, but looking back it has all come into focus. Mum, Dad & Ame: Because of you - I am strong, loved, educated & supported. CB: Where would I be without you? You have made my Branksome years complete. There has to be some truth in destiny, we met the first day of grade 7 and have been inseparable ever since. Although we may be starting two new adventures of our own, these past six years we have learned together, grown together & most of all become a part of one another. You may be my best friend, but you are also my sister. So let's go find some trouble. Congratulations Grads 2010.

I came to this school at the age of three and since then have had some of the greatest moments of my life. My life described by one word would be Branksome. I will forever be clad in plaid, and proud to say it. Thank you to all the teachers who helped me along the way. Thanks to the junior school, I dedicate my memories to you. Thank you mid-div, I give you my spirit. Thank you IB you have made me a stronger person. I can't say goodbye. It won't come out when I try to speak. But I am ready to face university and beyond. Thank you to art, you have found places within me I never knew existed. Family, I know I may look like a tree and act insane at times. But I owe you my life, my plaid and my inspiration. So long BH you've taught me about life; now it's time to live it.

It's so hard to believe that my years at Branksome are over. I can't believe how quickly it went by. Mom: thanks for always being there for me, I'm going to be a disaster next year without your constant love and support. Dad: you've given me the world, I can't imagine life next year without our snuggles and your terrible jokes. Hunter&Montana: you are the best siblings a girl could ask for. I love you guys. Ladies: you know who you are, (CS, AK, AJ, MK, WT, MC, RS, TK, PS, TF, AE), you guys have made IB worthwhile. GY's: cheers to the memories- starbucks runs, hallway chats, perogies, sing-alongs in the grad room, spandex, ben, and ib_tweetin. Mustos and Marshall: thanks for never giving up on me. Lastly, to the girls in the red ties, thanks for making it unforgettable. Forever and Always, Lex.

G'day Mate! What would make an Aussie girl with a German background come to Toronto? To be at Branksome, of course! That, the new friends and learning about the freezing white stuff that's on the ground for six months a year. Thanks to Mum and Dad for giving me the opportunity to experience a wonderful education at BH and helping me reach for my dreams. Danke auch an dich Omi, Du bist die Beste! To the teachers thank you for your support and guidance and your endless patience and encouragement with my knees. To Ashti, Allison and Magda, thank you for being there for me and sharing the best moments with me throughout my three years at Branksome. Good Luck to everyone in the future and I am sure we will meet again somewhere some time soon. Auf Wiedersehn!

I never thought writing this message would be easy, but I also never thought it would be this hard. Summing up my Branksome years into a 10 line message is difficult, not because I don't know what to say, but because I have too much to say. To my friends, you got me through everything from my first day of school to becoming a prefect. I don't know what I would do without you, and I am so grateful to be able to call you girls my friends. To Mum and Dad, guess what? I did it! Thank you so much for letting me go to Branksome, and even more for never saying no to me if I asked to come to school yet again at some ridiculous hour. To the prefects, I couldn't have asked for a better bunch of girls to work with! To my teachers, thanks for everything. Seriously. To my fellow grads, one word- Congrats!

To my parents, Grandparents, and the committee, who encouraged this life changing opportunity, words can't describe how grateful and lucky I am. Mom: thanks the shobhanizer, for constantly being there for me no matter what. Dad: Thanks for all the unforgettable vacations and great times. Miri: Thanks for giving me foot steps to follow in and playing the role of the over protective brother very well. Resh: Thanks for all your mature advice; I am going to miss you so much next year. Nora: thanks for always being there for me and all that num num. Branksome Faculty: Thanks for always believing in me and your constant support, especially res (my home away from home). To the girls of 2010 "In this bright future you can't forget your past."-Bob Marley. Thanks for an unforgettable past Branksome. P U J A.

Thanks to my parents for all their support throughout the years and thanks to everyone who made the last twelve years an experience to remember, even though there are some things I would rather forget. I'd be lying if I said my experience at Branksome did not change me into an organized, if not obsessive compulsive, eager, if not anxiety stricken, focused, if not neurotic, yet nonetheless a fully competent person. And for that, I thank IB.

Over the five years I have spent at Branksome Hall they have been filled with experiences and memories that I will cherish for a lifetime. To my closest, this isn't the end nor will there ever be an end, forever we will be. Advisor, we started out as 4 and we have blossomed into 11, from Hanny to Porter and with so many memories in between, I will indeed miss you all! Mom and Dad, I am so grateful for all the experiences you have given me even the ones from England, though you may not believe it! I love you more than you will ever know. Ash, I maybe your fashion icon but you are my inspiration. Robert, don't go speeding through life in your Aston Martin, cherish every moment you have. Lastly, my fellow sisters never let your shine fade, keep the brightness alive! Kaitlyn, forever a yellow sister.

MOST LIKELY TO have a perfect husband, perfect house, and three perfect children

McAlpine, 2006-2010, Mr. McVay

It doesn't seem like it was too long ago that I was a minor niner here at Branksome thinking I was going to wear that 'cool' red athletics sweatshirt everyday. Boy, was I wrong. Time has went by fast thanks to all the teachers and students who have a sense of humor that makes every day at school more enjoyable. Mom and Dad; thanks for the patience, support, and for the late night drives to the rink. Dad... the highest I can get in IB is 7, not 8...so keep dreaming. Con and Charlie: you guys are decent. Nacho: you are the best. To the branky hockey team (Caro and Ali included): I thoroughly enjoy every late night taco bell stop and cherish every cheesy gordita crunch I order. GYs: thanks for all the laughs this year, every one of you deserves to be on the wall of inspirational women. We are done IB, congrats ladies!

MOST LIKELY TO ace the higher level bio exam

CATLIN SEIBEL-KAMÉL

McAlpine, 1999-2010, Ms Hebdon

For 11 years, Branksome Hall has been my home away from home. To Mommy and Daddy: Vielen Dank für alles! I enjoyed every day, every hour, every minute and every second at school. The enrichment opportunities I had the privilege to be part of, like the two music trips to New Orleans and New York City, the exchange with St. Hilda's in Australia and the community service trip to Fiji, will remain unforgettable. To all my teachers, every one of you my mentor, a great big thank you for preparing me for a great life.

Twelve years later and I am still in a plaid kilt? Branksome has inspired me to explore my passions, never stop dreaming and be the change I wish to see in the world. Daniel- What will I do next year without my personal chef? You are the best brother a sister could ask for. Dad- Thank you for all of the opportunities you have provided me with and for allowing me to reach for the stars. Mom- I don't know how you put up with me, but I know I would never be able to function without you. Thank you. AC- No day but today. You will always be my stage soul mate. AD- Thanks for always being there, no matter what country we're in. DP- IB would never have been possible without you. Thank you for being the shining light to every single day. RC- You are a rock upon which I stand. Tumi amar jibon. Ami tomake bhalobashi.

Oh God, it's been 5 years, and I honestly don't know what to say. It's been a long, bumpy road, but I am so glad I navigated Pepé to stay on it. A big thank you to my grandparents for making my journey through Branksome possible; thank you to all my teachers for letting me bite and enjoy the apple of knowledge; and I will always be in the debt of my parents who made sure I got the best education money could buy. To my friends: you guys have been amazing. Thank you for putting up with all my quirks for as long as I have known each of you. There is too much to say to each one of you, but know that I love you, and you all hold a place in my heart. Can't wait to see what the future brings, and the lives we'll soon lead!

MOST LIKELY TO bake her own wedding cake

DANIELLE SIMPSON

Somehow I have spent six years in plaid; six years, seven inches, three exchanges and fourteen sports teams. The opportunities and friends that Branksome offered me were completely unforgettable. To my friends, where do I start? You are all the Edward to my Bella, the swine shot to my swine flu, without you, I'm not sure I would've survived the IB. To my best friend and my sister forever, Sharnels, to sum up our relationship would take something close to an extended essay, but basically I love you. To Mum and Dad, you never gave up on me; you supported my choices and helped me to become the more mature (sometimes) person that I am today. To Natalie, enjoy your next six years, they will be incredible! I never got that letter from Hogwarts at age eleven, but in a way, I am glad.

SARAH SMITH

It's been a long five years although the time has flown by fast. Branksome has watched me transformed from a 5 foot nothing awkward tween to a extremely stressed out 18 year old. So many memories I will never forget, from the below zero temperatures at OB to the sunny beaches of Costa Rica. Dios and Mois I am sorry we had to part ways, although you did make for a delicious chicken noodle soup. Fiji 08/09 two words, Kaivesu and Kava. From the rout, to Geneva Park from red neck josh to multiple Mcdonald runs. From my car being towed to my car being hit, there was never a dull moment after I got my G2. Although no matter the occasion the memories will always stay with me no matter where I am. So thank you Branksome for the many memories, and congratulations to the grads of 2010. I love you all and will miss you so much. Peace!

How to sum up 11 years in this short space? I have no idea, probably impossible, but I do know that it has been the time of my life. Teachers- thanks for putting up with my texting during class. Parentals - thanks for all the love, support, car rides, meltdowns, and laundry @ midnight on Sundays for a blouse Monday morning. MW- as much as we hate eachother -goodtimes. The girlies-Thanks for the countless memories, coffee runs, meltdowns, laughing fits, freakouts, parties, movie marathons in the grad room on spares & much more - love you all! Alex- my highschool sweetheart. I love you, there's no way to describe our time together, but I can say Europe was the best decision I've ever made. Wow, these past four years have gone by so fast! I can't believe that my years in plaid are over. To Mom and Dad: I couldn't have done it without you! You were always there to encourage and support me, and for that I will always be thankful. Ally: I couldn't ask for a better duet partner (haha), I'm going to miss you and your closet so much next year! David: While I'm not going to miss sharing a bathroom with you, I will miss the wise words that you seemed to provide me with throughout these years; I'm never "bothered" when you're around. To all my friends: You've made my high school years so much fun, I'll never forget them! Well Branksome its been a blast! Here's to whatever the future holds. xo Claire

I can't believe my 4 years at Branksome went by so quickly. I remember the first day at school, very lost, Branksome welcomed me into their community with open arms, and for that I will forever be grateful. Ever since then I have had nothing but incredible and unforgettable memories. I will miss Branksome, and think back on my time in high school with a big smile on my face. I will never forget all of the times spent at school working during the wee hours of the morning, hanging out with my best friends (VL, ML), and mad chills in the Grad Room. Thanks to everyone who helped me through these crazy 4 years, I will never forget you. Thanks to my mom and dad for inspiring me to reach higher then I ever dreamed possible. We made it guys, congratulations.

Douglas, 2009-2010, Ms Danard
This is my first and last year at Branksome. It was a huge change for me to leave my school and all my friends behind and move to another country where I didn't know anyone. But I think that I was very lucky to come to Branksome where everybody was very welcoming and friendly. I must admit that I didn't expect to get used to a completely different school in such a short time. I've met many great people and made lots of friends in my single year experience. My time at Branksome passed so quickly and now we are graduating! I am very glad that high school is finally over, but I also wish that I could have spent more time at Branksome. Thanks to all my friends and teachers for making this a great experience for me. Congratulations everyone!

I've had such an amazing time here at Branksome for the past eight years. I'm serious when I say that I'm going to miss wearing the uniform from seven in the morning to twelve at night and that I'll miss getting trampled in the overpass on my way to caf. Mom and Dad - you've been so supportive and I can't even thank you enough. Will - you're the best brother ever but you'll still never win at rock paper scissors. Archie - stink, you're a wild guy and you make me laugh. I love you all more than anything. To my girls in yellow - you are amazing and I can't imagine next year without you all. And here's my shout out to MPTC, the SA trip '09, and the pickup. Thanks Branksome for everything and I think I owe you an advisor snack or two. I'm so glad that I'm a Branksome girl and I couldn't imagine it any other way.

How can it be that 11 years have passed since I first stepped into Branksome? From the awesome times of wearing yellow for both my clan and grade, to the BBQs, to the Fiji trip (WHOO!), to the swim team, to dances, to the ever-growing workload in IB, BH has dominated a large chunk of my life. Thank you so much to Mom and Dad for continually being there for me 24/7. Thank you Jac for being the amazing sister who constantly endures my "hottie of the week" stories and is always a phone call away during tough times. Thank you to my besties for all the jokes and fun times and parties we've had to get through these years and make times at BH special. Ladies of 2010, CONGRATULATIONS! We survived IB and made YELLOW proud. Love you all!

Whether it was advisor times, carpool jams or grade BBQs the past 3 years have been unbelievable. Mom and Dad even though it never seemed like it I appreciated everything you've done for me, I did. Pork I'm sorry for abandoning you next year. To my amazing teachers thank you for putting up with all my shenanigans. Moufs what am I going to do when I can't have mental breakdowns in your office next year? Shoutout to MS. S and China so excited for the KEG. Hockey Bitties, MarGot-Gayme, 3shot & swine, those post-game taco bell stops made the whole season. Fiji08, even though it was an epic fail and we got locked up, thanks for a memorable New Years. Time passes in the blink of an eye. I am finally graduating after 5 years of learning at Branksome Hall. Thank you, Branksome Hall, for giving me many wonderful opportunities to become an independent learner. Thank you to all the teachers who have taught and helped me for the past 5 years. Thank you to my mum for always being supportive and caring. Thank you to all my friends who sometimes share my passion for KAT-TUN and are generous enough to let me eat some of their lunches. Thank you to members of the Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Strings for all their hard work! A message to my friends: Let's meet in the 2020 KAT-TUN Concert! I appreciate Branksome for giving me an opportunity to meet these people that means more than friends in my life. Rachel Bu! I am quite amazed by the fact that I have found someone that I can live with in the future, sadly not a male. I know we will be life-long friends when we first had our future planning together. thank you for introducing me to Erica Min!! You need to know how much I am impressed by your creativity as well as your stay up skills. And now, we have finally achieved our goals, hopefully. I do not know how our lives will turn out to be, but I am positive that we will always be good for each other. It is my pleasure to have you as my family and let's hope we will not end up meeting each other in prison. p.s. Special thank you to Veronica and Yoona , I can't imagine my G11 without you guys.

From locker room jams to advisor snack, you've become my second home: Branksome, thank you for the greatest teachers, friends and perogies a girl could ask for. Rowers: how will I Git-R Done without you? Bambinas (and X): you will always be hotter than four Billy Goats. Thanks for the countless laughs and cheez-its. Preefs: party all da time. Juji: you'll always be the Stimpy to my Ren. You showed me that a bruise on the arm isn't always a bad thing. Thx 4 the mmrs, loller skates. Er, KT: "Now the question is..." what would I do without you two? Thanks for paving the way. Mom and Dad, thanks for your endless support. Love you forever; don't go too crazy next year! Single Ladies: All I can say is that I've got a serious case of jaundice, and there's a reason Mrs. Murton's fave suit is yellow (our grade colour). YOU DA BEST.
MOST LIKELY TO be Ariel in the Little Mermaid

First, I would like to give thanks to my lovely parents. Though they are not beside me while I work days and nights for my EE, they did stay up late just to listen to me over the phone, complaining about IB. Second, I would like to thank all those teachers which I have spent more time with than my parents (i.e. Ms.Danard). Last but not least, my honorable friends that worked through these tough years with me. Special thanks to Alicha, who lived in the same residence with me for the past five years, Lynn and Claire, who had many fun memories with me, Angela, a lovely neighbor, Kelly, my lifesaver, and Allison, a truthful and intelligent friend. It's hard to summarize my whole Branksome life in this 4x8 cm square (Don't ask, Asians are SUPPOSE to be good at math), so I'm ending here with "bye!"
MOST LIKELY TO be a TOK genius and know more than all philosophers combined

I had no idea that 5 years at Branksome would go by so fast. Branksome has transformed me from a shy little girl to a confident young lady. Without the support from my friends, teachers, and family, I would have never been able to overcome the challenges that life has thrown at me. Mama: words cannot describe how much you mean to me, you are my best friend, my mom and my hero. Papa: thank you for always encouraging me to try harder. Jenny: you are my role model and comic relief. Yvonne: thanks for being my sister. Teachers: thank you for all your support and encouragement. GT&NM: without you two, I don't know how I would have survived through these past few years. I could never ask for better friends. And to the grads of 2010- Congratulations! We made it! Best of luck for the future!

I've only been to Branksome for two years but I feel like I've been here since forever. In Branksome, I made amazing and wonderful friends and met helpful teachers, counselors and advisors. They all helped me in one way or another. When I just came to Canada in 2008, I felt lonely and sad but Branksome made me feel home and happy, and for that I'm thankful. I'll never forget all the amazing memories in Branksome. I also want to thank my mom, dad, family and Moroccan/ Canadian friends who supported me through these two years of IB. Even though I'm too excited to go to university, I feel sad for living Branskome. Last but not least congratulations to all GY's. WE ARE THE BEST! Go Yellow!

Branksome Hall changed my whole life. During these two years, many people helped me, and I really want to express my thanks to all my friends and teachers here at Branksome. My friends, Claire Liu, Lynn Huang, Beth Fang, Natalie Lui....., my roommates, Sagari Nathan and Kelly Mak, and my deskmate Allison Hung, I am really happy to meet all of you here. Graduating from high school is not an end, but a new start. I hope that everyone will have a brand new life at university.
P.S. Many many thanks to Mrs. Weinstock and Mrs. Penny, without you, I will not have the chance to study here. You also gave me so much care and help. I appreciate it so much! You will always be the most important people in my heart. I will ALWAYS remember.

When I arrived at Branksome as a 4-year-old, graduating seemed to be the farthest thing on my mind. Now 14 years later, my GY year has finally come and so much faster than I ever expected. To my famjam: thank you for keeping me on track with school, and putting up with everything all these years. Teewee: hey down there. To all my best friends and friends at BH: you are the greatest group of girls in the world. Thank you for the laughter, memories and moments. You girls won't ever be forgot. CPC: thanks for the hilarious memories coming from and going to school. STG: for being the only group of girls who think it's OK to go to a random persons house and sing. My friends outside of BH: thanks for keeping me sane through the craziness inside and outside school. GY: we've done it! LOVE you all!

Residence

Feel Our Pride

Residence Dons

As Mohandas Gandhi once said, a nation's culture resides in the hearts and souls of its people. Conversely, it could be said that the hearts and souls of a community create its culture and this is certainly true of the Branksome Residence. There is a tangible spark which is felt whenever you walk through the front doors of MacNeill, Ainslie or Sherborne House because of the energy of our students. We come from all over the world and bring with us a myriad of ideas which we share and learn from each other. From the Mid-Autumn Festival dinner to Cirque du Soleil, Claire Liu and the Residence Council have made Branksome feel like our home away from home and have helped create so many happy memories. And to our 'big sisters', our GY girls, congratulations on completing the IB and we know you are well prepared for university life - we are so proud!
Ms. Cragg (Senior Residence Don)

Heads of House

Alessandra Cecconi: MacNeill

I was so happy to be elected head of MacNeill houe this year! I have lived in this house for four out of my five years at Branksome and had such a fun time living here. I am so glad that I was given the opportunity to give back and make living in Mac an enjoyable experience for other girls too.

Kelly Mak: Ainslie

My job is to ensure that every girl in the house is comfortable. Since Ainslie is the only house with girls from grade 8 to grade 12, it is important to promote unity and sisterhood. I also bring fun activities to girls, relieving their stress, and building up a sense of belonging to the community.

Sandy Wu: Sherborne

As the head of Sherborne house, my duty is to provide the GY girls a comfortable living environment. Having students from many different cultures, it is my responsibility to bring the girls together so we can live together like a family. I hope the following residence year will be successful and peaceful!

Junior Dons

Communications: Jisoo Park, Fiona Chong

Our job is to provide a link between the residence and the day school. We are responsible for updating the Residence board in the day school, writing articles for the residence blog and providing information about special residence events to the day school students.

Food:
Natalie Lui, Beth [illegible]ng, Rhianna Bai, Lynn [illegible]

The food committee is dedicated to ordering food for each residence and organizing special dinners for different festivals. We organized the Mid-Autumn Festival and Thanksgiving Dinners. We feel proud and honored to serve the residence.

Global Citizens: Angela Dai, Ver[illegible] Malek

We are responsible for cultural activities, such as special dinners and community service initiatives. We are currently organizing a runway- themed clothing drive. Not only are we contributing to our residence, but also trying to bring more fun and creativity in to the residence.

Spirit Committee: Maria Nathan, Danie[illegible]
Janis Fang

As Spirit committee, we entertain our residence friends. We make connections with the boy schools and hold events with them. We also hold competitions between the residence families. We hope that girls enjoyed their entertainment life in the residence 09-10!

Junior Representatives:

Maria Paz Almenara, Melodie Wong

Our job is to integrate the younger girls into the residence community. We are responsible for planning activities for the girls in grades 8-10 and ensuring that they bond with the senior girls. As a part of the Residence Council, we also help plan activities, such as Thanksgiving dinner, Mid-Autumn Festival and the haunted house. We enjoyed fulfilling our responsibilities!

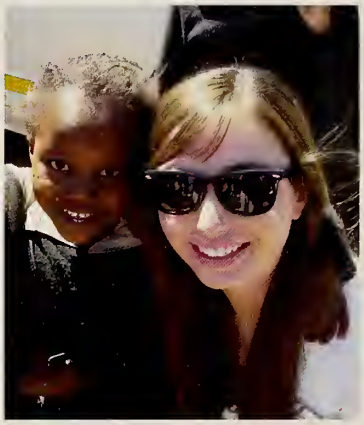
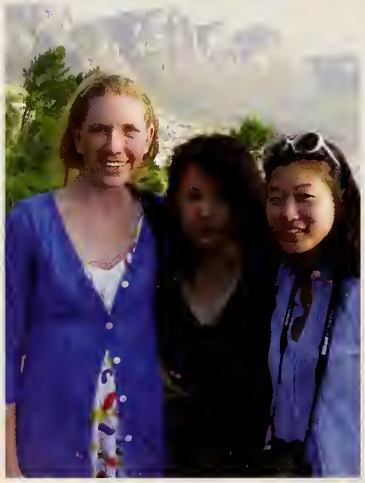
Community Service Trip to

Q GAP

Queenstown, South Africa

"This trip wasn't just about going to and visiting a new country. It was about connectin with other people just like all of us."
-Erica Min





"Teaching at QGAP was one of the most rewarding and enriching experiences of my life. I met some of the most enthusiastic, bright and driven students who taught me much more about life than I could ever teach them about math."

Farewell

Tori Abbott

Dear Tori,
We are proud of your accomplishments over the last six years at Branksome. You have shown your true colours on many athletic teams, The Triangle of Hope, Homework Club and QGAP in South Africa. You have learned that giving all you've got and 'giving back' can enrich your life in ways you never imagined. Tori, your conscientious attitude and tenacious spirit have served you well as you tackled the challenges of the IB program. Congratulations!
As you head off to University open your heart and soul to new friends you meet along the way. If you spread your wings you will fly high. You are a caring and beautiful young woman with a bright future ahead.
All our love, Mom, Dad and Ben

Vicki Alexopoulos

Your high school graduation is finally here and fills us with love and pride. You have been a wonderful mentor to your sisters and may this leadership role follow you in your future. Branksome Hall has blossomed you into a creative, confident and beautiful graduate. Keep your face towards the sun and shadows will fall behind you!
Love, Mom , Dad, Vanessa, Deora

Shannon Aikman-Jones

Your years at Branksome remind us of an extended Synchronized Skating routine which you so enjoy. When you first arrived, you were exited and a tad nervous to meet your new teammates. It was challenging at first to choreograph the routine and dance to the BH beat. As years progressed, the IB footwork became much more difficult and intense, a real Battle of the Blades. However, with solid guidance you learned to adapt and blossom. With insurmountable pride in your accomplishments, we look forward to how your future will unfold. We're so proud of you. Love Mum, Dad and Toby.

Hillary Ball

Beanie,
You are a source of happiness to everyone you know.
You find the world a lovely place and help to make it so.
Though time changes many things-many people too
It will never change the beauty
That is the heart of you
BURSTING with Pride and Love,
Mom, Dad, Matt

Sydney Edmonds

Syd- as you move forward to the next phase of your adventure, remember to look back once in a while and tell your story; it's a good one.
With love and tons of respect, pride, and admiration- Mom and Dad

Nora Beqaj

The ABC of Nora Diane Beqaj

A is for her attitude, which has always been great
B is for Beqaj, a name that many find hard to translate
C is for candid, which she quite often can be
D is for her dedication of friends, family, Oh, I know you see
E is for the environment, which she wants to make her life's cause
F is for her father, who is always there, with thunderous applause
G is for her giddiness, especially when she is opening gifts
H is for her happiness, give her some space and just watch her mood lift
I is for the individual, which nobody will doubt
J is for Jen, who has always been supportive inside and out
K is for the kindness, which she has shown to us all
L is for her love of life, when she is around it's always a ball
M is for the many of us, who will miss her so dearly
N is for Nora, who makes us appreciate the world so clearly
O is for the oars, that her crew drives through the water
P is for her persistence, so her team will not falter
Q is for Queens, where she definitely will not go
R is for the Republicans, which always make her go loco
S is for her siblings, all five that she treasures
T is for time, we know, she is ready to leave by any measure
U is for unbelievable, how much she has grown
V is for her victories, the seeds have been sown
W is for world peace and issues galore
X is for X-traordinary, which her contribution will be and more
Y is for the youngster, which lurks in her heart
Z is for her zest for life, which sets her apart

Dear Nora

We are so proud and love you very much and wish you great excitement and much happiness next year.

Love Dad, Jen, Emma, Eddie, Jack, Sam and Sarah

Alexandra Bethlenfalvy

Alexandra,
We are so proud of you and all of your achievements. It seems like only yesterday that it was your first Christmas and your favourite stuffed monkey became such a huge part of your life. It seems like only yesterday that we attended your first interview of your life at the Lycee Francais in NYC. It seems like only yesterday that your piano recitals and ballet performances were the focus of every fall and every spring in NYC. You have achieved so much in your 17 years! You have grown from the adorable little girl who never wanted to miss out on anything in life to the mature young woman who continues to embrace every new opportunity that life offers. From your dramatic performance in Marymount School's production of "Les Miserables" to your leading role as the hysterical character in "The Servant of Two Masters", you have showed the world the star individual you have always been in our hearts and in our home. Always know that no matter what you do in life or where you live or what else you achieve, you will always be our one and only "Love Bug". We love you to the moon and back and wish you endless happiness and love.
Love, Mom, Michael, Allegra, Nicholas and Maddy xoxox
Alexandra,
How short a time it seems since Mimi and I first held you as a little bundle from heaven. Now a young girl on the brink of full adult womanhood, we cannot contain our joy in what you have become and our pride in your undoubted future accomplishments. Love, Mimi and Papy

Diana Blesko

Congratulations Diana! We are so proud of your achievements. You have accomplished a lot at Branksome and the future holds so much more! From a beautiful baby, you have grown so fast into a lovely young woman. Look now to the future and face it with courage, and do not waste a minute of your life on regret.
Be happy and true to yourself, follow all your dreams! We will always be in your corner, cheering you on, hoping that whatever kind of life you choose it will bring you fulfillment and the happiness you want and deserve so much!
With all our love: Mama, Mourad, Baba Katia, Baba Lena, Yaroslav, Violetta, Roksolana, Ulyana, Elena & Selina, Natasha, Rostik & Stastik and your great grandparents! Always remember that we love so much and wish you all the best in your life! XOXO

One of our favourite things about Chloe was that when she was little she used to crawl, climb and hang all over us when we sat at the kitchen island. She was so affectionate. Now all these years later, Chloe doesn't crawl, climb or hang all over us. But she is still so affectionate.
Chloe, it is pretty great to have a sister who at seventeen is still happy to give us a big hug and kiss just like when you were a little two year old.
Love, your big sisters Maggie & Emilie

Dearest Chloe, you were my first partner in crime and my first ally against the parental front of discipline. If we were born ten years later, we would have totally landed a Disney sitcom for our mischief making. Oh well.
I can say with all honesty that first year was the best year of my life, and cannot possibly put into words how excited I am for you. I cannot wait to hear about all the great things you will accomplish. I cannot wait for you to find your niche, whatever that may be: the possibilities are endless. Always keep that in mind. Always follow your heart and never fear failure. Never fear anything. Never doubt yourself. And always remember who brought you cold diet coke on hot summer days: your cool older brother Marc.
Love, the aforementioned cool brother Marc.

Chloe, we are so proud of the young woman that you have become. It seems like only yesterday that you were taking your first steps and elbowing strangers that got too close! You have taken many steps since then and have shown a maturity and confidence beyond your years.
You are smart and loving with a generous nature and a good and kind heart.
Always remember that the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. The future belongs to you.
Wishing you all of your dreams.
Love Mom and Dad

Nora Beqaj

Nora- IMAGINE!
Your journey at Branksome Hall started in Grade One and here you are graduating- Congratulations Nora! You are a beautiful, generous and thoughtful young lady and we are all so proud of you. Your radiant smile, tender heart, and passion for life will bring you much success in the future. Congratulations on all of your wondrous accomplishments - especially with your rowing team.
We love you today and everyday.
Love Mom, Emma, Eddie, Maggie and Stella
LIFE IS A GIFT!!

Jacqui Carl

Jaqui Carl,
What a Jovial, Athletic, Charismatic, Unique, Involved young lady you have grown to become. We are so proud of you and all your incredible accomplishments and we wish you all the world has to offer you as you move into your university years and beyond. I marvel at your energy, enthusiasm, determination and positive attitude. With these character traits, you are well positioned for success and happiness in your life. Know that whatever you set your mind to that is what you will achieve. Know that I'm your biggest cheerleader and I'll always be there for you. I love you - Mom

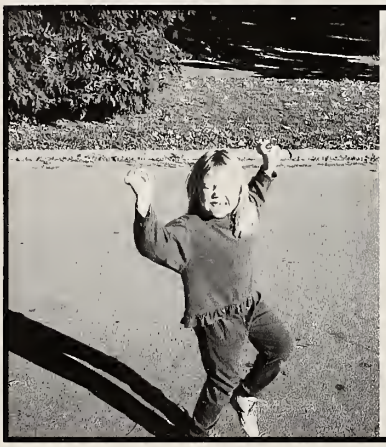
Congratulations Julia!!!... you have worked incredibly hard... your accomplishments have impressed us all!!!... now... please take a moment to relax and reflect ... look back to where you've been (see photo)... look forward to where you're going... but most importantly... look around and enjoy where you are... now and always. Love Mom and Dad



Katie Charter

Katie, your compassion for all, loyalty to friends and motivation to succeed in the right ways could not make us more proud. Your achievements have already shown the world your talents know no limits; we can only imagine the heights to which you will soar. Congratulations!
Love, Mom and Dad.

Alessandra Cecconi

Sassy Sass: Where has the time gone? It seems like just yesterday we were in Toronto, having dinner with Mrs. Murton, new winter clothes and boots, awkward conversations with your would- be, soon to be best friend, Aliya. Our sweet ,12 year old, home schooled, island girl, moving from an island , 3 miles long and half a mile wide to the metropolis of Toronto.....without even batting an eye or skipping a beat. We are so proud of the way you accept and embrace challenges and change. The world is your oyster and you are it's pearl. Congratulations on all that you have accomplished. We are so proud of you. We love you. Mummy, Daddy, Toby, Isabella, Quinn, Ruby, Nana, Auntie Tina and Ade. xxx

Morgan Cuthbertson

For all that you've learned,
For all that you've achieved,
For all the steps and missteps along the way,
And mostly for what you've become,
We are so proud of you Morgan.
You're a good daughter,
You're a good person,
You're trustworthy and strong,
You've a head on your shoulders.
You're tough as nails, but warm as the sun.
You're spontaneous and creative: serious and introspective.
I'll always remember a thousand things, a thousand days, none of them bland.
Sailing at speed, skiing at speed, cycling at...well, you get the picture.
You'll be missed terribly.
The world will recognize your talents, even if you don't always.
You will succeed. You will achieve true happiness.
Well done Trout. We love you bigger than the sky.

Raimah Chowdhury

Dear Raimah,

Knowing that you will soon be graduating, moving to University and stepping out to the world, fills us with joy and pride. Time has indeed gone by all too quickly since you came into this world on 12th May at Gleneagles Hospital in Singapore and lit up all our lives.

We look at you now, a young lady, about to enter university with the world at her feet. As Parents, we will always worry but deep down, we know you are more than capable of holding your own.

Life, a constant roller coaster ride, will challenge and inspire you and over your university years, you will discover and rediscover yourself many times over, meet new people, and grow into an adult. You will work hard, but at the same time have fun. It will be uncertain and worrisome one minute, wonderful and exhilarating the next.

Most importantly though, you will understand and practice responsibility, not just in academic terms, but also in terms of being a citizen of the world.

We have tried to do the best for you and we know you will never let yourself down. You have sacrificed much to be where you are today and leaving your best friends behind in Bangladesh and moving to Canada two years ago could not have been at all easy.

Enjoy these next few years and at the same time learn and enrich yourself further.

As your family, we will always be there by your side, just as we have always tried to be. Being the wonderful individual you are, make your mark in this world and do justice to your talents, capabilities and potential. We thank Allah for blessing us with a daughter such as yourself and may He always be with you and guide you and protect you.

Dada, Bhaiya and Hamdan, Alisha and Araj join us in congratulating you on your Graduation and wishing you a future of prosperity, happiness and good health.

Love, Papa & Ammu

Elizabeth Cunningham

Dearest Elizabeth,

Where did all the time disappear to? We can still remember you as if it were just yesterday, in your long green coat going off to your first day of pre-school at Miss Vicky's in Montreal. In those early school years, you developed a passion for public speaking which eventually evolved into your love for debating at Branksome. We remember you beginning school as a shy timid little girl. Now, as you graduate, not only are you an accomplished debater but as well, a natural leader who is on the threshold of now entering the university world as a confident, poised and determined young woman. Your constant positive reinforcements from your Branksome teachers who were always there cheering you on has definitely helped to mould you into the tenacious young woman you are today. This time is best described as bittersweet as we are sad that your high school years have come to an end, yet, we are excited for you as you graduate and now go on to university and your next adventure in your life.

Congratulations and love from your older brother Sean, Letty and both of us. As parents, we could not be prouder of you, Elizabeth.

Jessica Chaiton

Jessie, Jessie, Jessie.... there is insufficient space here to express how we feel about this important milestone. You have been such an exemplary daughter, sister, student, friend... and we are extremely proud of your many accomplishments. It has been our pleasure and delight to see you blossom into the warm, caring, intelligent, fun-loving, good-natured, mature, loyal and determined young lady that you are today. You have worked hard through the years and your efforts have paid off. We are confident that you have what it takes to realize your dreams and make a difference in the future of tomorrow. We wish you good luck and success as you venture into the next chapter of your life.

With much love and pride...

xoxo Mom, Dad and Allie

Dear Heather

From Mooredale, to Montcrest , to Branksome , and now to university...

We cherish the memories and look forward to supporting you on the next stage of your journey. The time has passed so quickly. We are very proud of your accomplishments, and so impressed by your hard work, dedication, and, of course, those amazing organizational skills!

All of our love,

Dad and Mom

Ready or Not

You may not know the power of your smile

Or see yourself as others do,

You don't know who you are yet,

Or where you want to go,

But you will.

Let me tell you what we see,

Let me tell you what we know:

You're beautiful both inside and out.

Ready or not,

The world is yours.

Open the doors, take the detours, catch the wind.

Your journey is just beginning. Embrace it.

You have so much to offer the world.

You just don't know it yet.

But you will.

Always remember how beloved you are to your family, and how blessed we feel to have you as a daughter , a sister.

We are always here for you.

Congratulations!

Love always, Mum, Dad, Matt and Chris.

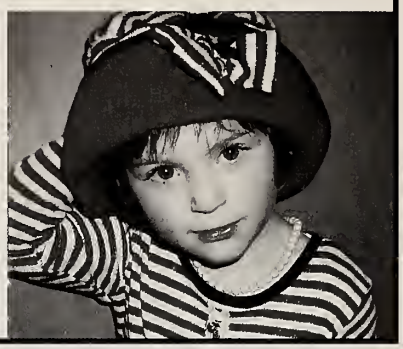
Amanda Govan



Congratulations, dearest Amanda! Another successful year at Branksome Hall! It hasn't always been an easy road, but you've learned so much and met some wonderful friends. Now, new adventures await you, as you leave the place you've grown to love. We're very proud of you! With love, Mum & Steve

Erika Folk

Erica Folk, you bring a smile to our face every time we think of you. Your quick wit and intelligence are just a few of your many qualities. Your wide circle of friends is a testament to your easy going respectful persona. These qualities will serve you well in all your future accomplishments. Keep that great sense of humour. We all love you... we are very proud of you. Alexis, Mom & Dad

Nada Marzouk

Nada, you made us really proud. Since the beginning of the school journey you have been determinant, capable and patient. Your kind personalities have attracted friends around you. Keep up the same wonderful spirit through the rest of the road. Karin and Shireen are proud of you and wish you all the best.
Way to go Nada.
Mom, Dad, Karin and Shireen

Juliana Faircloth

Remember this photo? You had waited so patiently for you first day of nursery school. What? Only Tuesday and Thursday? For you this would not do! Again you waited patiently until you would attend daily. What? School is closed on weekends? There was so much to know- you just couldn't get enough- the artwork, the song, the playground, and so many people to talk to! Your love of all these things grew at Branksome. No more waiting patiently though- it was time for action. You were so crushed in Gr.6 to learn that some of the world's children are forced to fight as soldiers- attending school no part of their lives. For you this would not do! So you began to prepare. We proudly listened to you speak as Gr.8 Valedictorian and saw that you were already equipping yourself to battle injustices. You gave generously of your time to model leadership and inspire hope at Rose Avenue and in South Africa. You helped re-launch lives across the world through your KIVA Club micro-loans. You knew it all along: these efforts only confirming your belief that education is the key to it all! You've tackeled your education with great respect and passion. We couldn't admire or love you more: whether you are focusing on your studies, standing up for a friend, performing prefect duties, carving a ski turn, or cracking a joke. Whichever university you choose will have found a real treasure. They'll know it in an instant. At Branksome you may be Jubes but to us you will always be The Peach.
Congradulations! Love Mom, Dad, Joey and Jinny

Alexandra Fieder

Alexandra Elizabeth Fieder
You have had a crayon in your hand and a song on your lips for as long as we can remember, filling our home with your radiance.
Continue to be the compassionate, creative, solid, resilient, driven and fun loving young lady that we love.
You are ready to run out the door to pursue your dreams with joy, energy and exuberance.
Carpe diem.
We love you,
Mom, Dad and Andrew (Emma and Abby)

Jenna Herman

Jenna, it seems like yesterday that you began at BHS. We watched you change over the years from little girl into young woman. BHS taught you to think critically and strategically, and that you could set difficult goals, achieve them and surpass them. Along the way, so many memories. Great friends and lots of laughs, sport teams, the morning drive and father-daughter dresses, South Africa, Outward Bound (oops, forget that), some really great teachers and some really great courses. You are so special. Intuitive, caring, supportive, confident and self-assured but balanced and easy-going, a combination of fun and little-girl enthusiasm with a maturity beyond your years. You have a great sense of humour and a great sense of fairness, both of which will prove so valuable as you go through life. You are everything we could ever have dreamed of, and then more. Thanks and love, Mom and Dad.

Maddy Hicks

Maddy green bean, we are very proud of your accomplishments and the person who you are. We have seen you mature at BH to become a beautiful young woman capable of so much. And oh yes, you are still that great energetic, happy, zest for life kid that we know and love. Your sense of humour gets better every year. And you are loved by many. Words really can't express how much we love you and how much we are going to miss you when you go off to University. It is a wonderful time in your life and always know that we are here for you. Your biggest fans

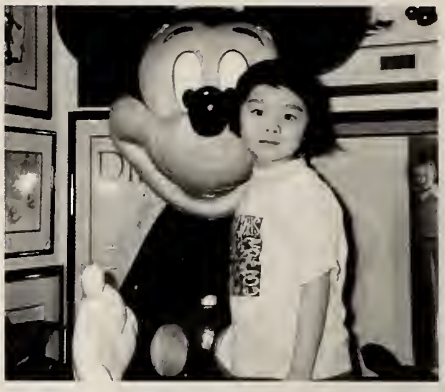
From the day you could - you smiled and you've never looked back.
We've watched you grow from a fun-loving toddler to a confident, accomplished young woman.
We admire your positive attitude, generous spirit and true grit in the face of challenges.
Whether singing, rowing or completing IB portfolios, you push to your best.
We love you so much and wish you continued happiness and success as you leave Branksome for the big world beyond.
Congratulations on all your accomplishments Julia! We are all very proud of you.
Love Mommy, Daddy, Justin, Brendan, Jessica, Lucas and Daisy too!

Bonita Hui



Dear Bonita,
Let us begin by telling you how excited we are to see you graduate from high school. You have accomplished a journey with great enthusiasms, devotions, and triumphs of high achievement. You have exhibited the qualities of curiosity, persistence, and continuous learning. I encourage you to explore a new life experience in England. A great university will raise your sights and show you how special you can be. Your journey to the world around you has just begun. Working hard and enjoying it are not only compatible but essential.
Love,
Dad, Mom, Sergeant, and Turtle

Jenna Hinds

Jenna, looking through your baby pictures for this entry reminded us that even when you were little you had a taste for adventure, preferably with some accompanying risk, coupled with a fierce determination that has always served you well. Through it all, however, you have showed a strong inclination for mucking about in water. You started with your arms to the elbows in marine touch tanks on maritime vacations, never hesitating to pick up the scaliest, slimiest creature. Today, it could be scuba diving on wrecks in the Caribbean or doing biology labs in the Don River.
We are proud of you, and not at all surprised that you will probably continue messing about in water. We will miss you terribly if you do decide to do your messing about far from Toronto, but we know you will always come back to Manitoulin Island.
Bon courage!

Emily Hines

Emily -
20 years of marriage

and then,
you were here!
Our dreams and prayers fulfilled.
Now, as you create your own path,
our thoughts are always with you,
our arms are always open and our hearts are full of love and pride
as you dance into your own dreams.

It has been a long and winding road from Kindergarten, Grundschule, Bonhoefer and finally Branksome Hall and you all made it. Berlin is waiting for Charly and we all love her!! Congrats & big kisses from all your friends and family!

Magda Konieczny

Magda, what fun and laughter you have given our family from the day you were born! You continue to fulfill our dreams and you mature and accomplish your goals. Your future is the canvas, your choices are the paint and your talent is the brush. You have proven many times to be strong, independent, and passionate. We are proud of you and will always be there for you whatever exiting ventures you choose to pursue.

Χαρις = Charis = grace

As the Bible says :
Children are a heritage, and a reward from the Lord.
Charis, surely you are a beautiful heritage to us.
You're the colours to the rainbow, as the love & smiles to our family.
Through you we can see God's blessings:
though life was hectic, we can always work together, play together, eat and talk together, worship together, and interact socially ...
We enjoy and cherish every moment with you.
We get immeasurable joy in the ways that you honor us - voluntarily the chores are done as well as your cheerful giving notes of encouragement.
With God's love in your heart, you'll always be our source of pride
We love you with all our heart

Victoria Kepes

It seems like yesterday that we dropped you off in front of the new Mid-Div. Since then, there have been school trips, ski trips, sleepovers and hangovers. Rain in England, Arctic cold in Algonquin Park, and sun in Nice, Monaco, Rome and Ireland. Driving lessons, diving lessons, tutors (go Justin!), Peer Support and Horizons. One bat mitzvah, six Father-Daughter dances and multiple front-row rides on The Hulk.

Everyone knows you as someone special; you are warm and loving, empathetic and loyal, beautiful in body and soul, inspiring and creative, smart and hilariously funny. We are as proud of you as parents can be. Recent years have brought challenges that few people face and you have demonstrated strength beyond your years and a determination to achieve your goals. Branksome Hall has brought out the best in you and will always be a treasured memory. You're now ready to leave it behind for the next adventure and challenge. You should be very proud of yourself and know that your courage and hard work will bring happiness and success.

As you embrace the future, remember that you will always have a lifetime of love and support from your family, an armful of cuddles from your dogs, and infinite txts frm ur BFFs!

The poet Maya Angelou said "One isn't necessarily born with courage, but one is born with potential. Without courage, we cannot practice any other virtue with consistency. We can't be kind, true, merciful, generous, or honest." You are all of those things and much, much more.

We love you beyond words,
Mum, Dad and David

Victoria Lehman

Victoria,
It seems like only yesterday when we dropped you off at JK, with your tie hanging down to your knees, one shoulder strap, one off. Mrs. Medland, Ms. Sneesepickle, playing, singing, learning, laughing. Fast forward to 2010- Grade 12! Still the BH plaids, but a slightly different fit. You've grown into your uniform and you've grown as a person. Still singing , learning, laughing but maybe a little more serious. We've said before that "you came into the world in a hurry" and to this day you strive to eperiance life at an exhausting rate. The journey to get to this point has been a long one and now you're about to embark on a different path. We're very proud of you, love, for all your accomplishments and for surviving all the ups and downs along the way. No doubt, there will be many more ups and downs as you continue your journey. Remember that the trying periods make you a stronger person and build character. Treat these as learning opportunities and take time to enjoy your achievements. You are a very special daughter and sister whose creativity and determination will ensure you succeed at whatever you try. Never stop trying! Be true to yourself! The world is your oyster!
Love,
Dad, Mom, and Becca XOXO

Congratulate on your graduation ! We want to dedicate this to you...
Be cheery, Child !
How about opening your mind and letting your dream go wild ?
For life is a winding road only,
Seeking the truth, the goodness and the beauty.
One cannot avoid the baptism of grievousness,
nor escape the caress of tenderness.
So keep on searching, crying and laughing,
and you'll find pessimists worth teasing.
To the needy, lavish your property,
Share your energy.
Cause other than love, nothing on earth is absolutely valuable ...
Remember this, you'll not find your life lamentable !
Love You Always, Mum & Dad.

Jenny Wren-
You may be last, but you certainly are not least! We know it wasn't always easy following in the footsteps of three older sisters, but you have emerged as a shining star with your own unique talents.
We are so proud of your many accomplishments during your Branksome years, but even more impressive is what you have taught us all about the importance of looking after others who are less fortunate. Only your huge heart is a match for your incredible passion for life! The house will be very quiet when your whirlwind of activity follows you to University in the fall.
Congratulations and love you, Jenn- Mom, Dad, Mel, Katy, Stace, Bailey and Stella xo

Katherine McKinnon

Kathryn You have grown and matured into a wonderful Branksome girl. You make us all so very proud. Our "Baby Kat" is now a beautiful graduate. We couldn't be happier about all your accomplishments. You have developed a terrific work ethic that has allowed you to achieve your goals, while maintaining your great sense of fun. You have given yourself a solid foundation for the next steps! Congratulations on all your achievements, may all your dreams come true. We know you have all the skills you need to achieve anything you put your mind to achieve. We love you very much! Love Mom, Dad,Kristin, Kaleigh, molly and Charlie! xoxoxo

Felicity Robson

From Sydney to Munich and to Toronto - what a truly international education you have had! We're very proud of you for your steadfast determination to do the best you can and meet every challenge. Keep believing in yourself and conquer the world! With all our love always, Mama and Dad

Erin McDonald

Dear Erin,

It has been an adventure-filled journey. We've watched with awe as you have grown from an active and curious baby into the beautiful, lively and self-confident young woman who stands before us poised to enter a new and exciting phase of life. Well done, Erin! You successfully maintained high grades, while balancing a full and active social life. How did you do it? You made it look so simple, and yet you worked so hard and diligently. Your organizational skills are the envy of our family. Always self motivated and inwardly driven, you never liked to take no for an answer. Whether competing on the rowing team, finishing a 42-day canoe trip, or organizing Spirit Week activities, you have always pushed yourself to try your best. Most importantly, though, you have matured into a wonderful young adult. You are a loving and loyal sister to your siblings, Brendan and Carolyn , and a caring daughter, granddaughter and friend. Congratulations, Erin. We love you so much and will always be here for you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Caroline Mercer

Caroline wears that whole rain look with panache. Twirling the umbrella. Sporting the dashing raincoat, velour slippers... that's our girl. Lots of splash.
Twirl that umbrella, Sweetie, as you swing off to your university studies and beyond.
Much love from your proud and adoring parents.

Erica Min

Erica, we are so proud of you.
Really you made it through the tough 4 years with your "never give up" spirit.
Imagine now, you will have the huge ocean to surf and dive with your curious eyes, free mind and warm heart.Certainly wherever you go, you are our daughter and sister (even though we always had to make sure a ribbon on your hair to let people know you were a baby-girl !) And we love you forever.Dad, Mom and Jason

Cristina Osorio

You have been our pride and joy from the day you were born. You have also been our source of smiles, tears, worries, excitement, friends, love and commitment. The day you arrived, we understood that God had entrusted us with bringing up a very tender and special human being. Your earlier years were full of hugs and smiles. You would crawl or walk into a room and promptly gain the love of those around you. As you started school, you made special friendships which have been there for you throughout your school years. You have always shown a desire to be independent and accomplished. You gave your heart and soul, not only to your education, but also to your rowing and field hockey teams. Please keep this spirit up, as it will provide you with many rewards in your years to come. As you approach your graduation from high school, we would like you to keep in mind the following:

• You are only as strong as your foundation; remember the love and support that we will always have for you.

• Reach out for the stars. You have a great education from Branksome. Don't be shy when setting your goals, you will achieve and exceed them.

• Maintain your loving and warm spirit. You have developed great friendships at Branksome. Cherish them forever.

Your parents, your grandparents and your extended family in Canada, the US, Europe and South-America, wish you the very best on the road ahead. You are and will always be in our hearts!

Olivia Pierratos

Congratulations Olivia! It seems such a short time ago that you were entering Junior Kindergarten at Branksome and now you have completed the IB diploma. The years in between filled with hard work, challenges, laughter and achievements. We are so proud of the wonderful young women that you are today- kind, generous, throughtful, creative, mature, and intelligent. We wish you success and joy in your life ahead. You are ready to embark on the next stage of life; well-prepared to meet new challenges and seek out new opportunities and adventures. Enjoy! We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Alexander and Micheal

Lexie Robertson

Lexie, You have been a constant joy in our lives. Your sense of adventure and your compassion have enabled us all to learn from you. Your unique and refreshing sense of humour has provided us with many laughs. We are so very pleased with your years at Branksome and the wonderful experiences and friends that they have brought you.

We are bursting with pride and admire how you have lived your life so far and can't wait to see what the future holds for you. Thank you for allowing us to be part of your exciting journey. We love you more than you will ever know. Keep Well the Road.Mommy, Daddy, Montana & Hunter (Rufus & Not So Rosie too!) xxx

Sarah Rosenblat

...a twinkle of an eye that brings us tears of joy
...a loving smile that captures our hearts
...a focus and dedication that's the envy of her peers
Sarah, words alone cannot express how proud we are of you and what you've accomplishments over the years. You've risen to every challenge and established others and yet you also know how to stand your ground for what is important to you. This is a wonderful ability to have and we hope it will guide you forever.
Branksome will never have a better ambassador.
Mazel Tov sweetheart!

Puja Sabnani

Puj, Princess P, Panjan, Puja, Pigeon...
We are so very proud of you, from your tiny tot years with aunty Mala at Montessori to Washy, to the great White North at Branksome Hall. Some may see you as a quiet, shy and tiny, but we at home know your giggly, party rat, glamorous, fashion police, pepper pot character - that we love and miss so much. You are an amazing daughter, sister, niece and grand daughter. Your journey has been filled with many challenges and your strength and determination has always seen you through. May the angels continue to shine down on you.
Wishing you a Life filled with love, laughter and happiness.
Love always Mom, Dad, Hamir and Reshma.

Kaitlyn Saunders

Kaitlyn,
During your years at Branksome Hall we have watched you with pride mature from a shy schoolgirl into a quietly confident young woman. You have enriched our lives more than you know through witnessing your quiet but steely determination to excel in everything you do whether that be in your many sporting endeavors or in the classroom and your tremendous compassion for others. We know that, as you embark on the next stage of your life's journey, you are well prepared and will succeed in everything you do. Congratulations on your graduation!
Love from Mum, Dad, Ashleigh & Robert

Victoria Stephens

Dear Victoria
July 16, 1992 changed our lives forever when we proudly announced the arrival of our beautiful daughter and granddaughter. You are amazing, and we are all so very proud. Congratulations on your graduation. The world is now your oyster. We love you.

Veronica Saroli

"How did it get so late so soon? Its night before its afternoon, December is here before its June. My goodness how the time has flewn. How did it get so late so soon?" Dr.Seuss

Veronica where did the time go. From the moment you were born we know how lucky we were. You have inspired us through your honesty, wittiness, compassion, openness, and intelligence. These attributes define your curiosity and creativity. We are so proud of you. Reach for your goals and dreams but remember that the journey that gets you there is wonderful. As you leave Branksome do not forget why you came.

Ps: What we will remember most and have enjoyed were the morning coffee runs to Starbucks however we are still trying to figure out why two coffees cost us $20.00 per day - how does that happen - what was your math mark this year??

Mum & Dad - We love you very much! XO

"When you realize there is nothing lacking, the whole world belongs to you" Lao Tzu

Dear Miss Veronica,

Congratulations on this wonderful beginning of your life! I hope you move forwards with confidence and excitement as you hold this quote in your heart.

This yearbook page is like the mirror you glance at before you leave home. Every entry is a mirror held up by someone who loves and knows you in their own special way.

You've always struck me as a young woman of solid judgment, with the grace and comportment that attracts admiration, trust and reception.

Know that you have an abundance of these qualities and the world will belong to you.

I am very excited about your future.

With love and only best wishes,

Wendy Yiu

Veronica, congratulations on the joyful completion of your Branksome years. IT has been our pleasure to see you grow into the thoughtful, caring bright and interesting person you are. UP ahead we see a brilliant light. It is your future, and we look forwards to seeing it unfold and being part of it.

Michael, Kathy, Josh, Johanna & Alex

Dear Veronica,

How can I possibly convey everthing I'd like to say? Well, you have certainly been an inspiration from day 1. You have inspired me to pierce my ears, listen to better music, dress better and of course -bake better! You have also inspired me to be a better mother & become more active within and outside of our community.

As you continue your journey I know you will continue to engage and inspire those around you. I know you will also find success in whatever direction you chose. I am proud to know you and look forward to all that is to come.

xo,

Catherine

Veronica:

Don't Rush, Stay Young

Take your time and live.

We have enjoyed watching your journey through childhood to girl, to teenager, to woman and from the start of school (so proud) to graduation (even prouder). We remember you as a young child (before Branksome) and have watched you grow into a mature you as a young woman. We even have your annual growth markings on a board at the cottage. We will always remember you in your developing years as a polite, fun loving and warm individual and anticipate the continued life journey with you.

You have impressed us with your Scholastic ability and personal style.

Thank you for sharing with us, your years at Branksome. From your first uniform, loads of homework, stage plays, test results, the best school stories, fundraisers, rowing, school trips and great friends.

Our best wishes in all your future endeavours.

Don't forget your friends.

We are so proud.

Friends always,

Jamie Lapointe and Art Coles

Samantha Shier

Samantha Shier,
We first entered the Branksome gates over 12 years ago and knew right away that this was no ordinary school and you knew it too. We are so grateful for the supportive teachers that have helped you blossom and thrive here. Your sense of fairness, caring and compassion for all people is exceptional and has been part of you since you were little. You deserve the best life has to offer and we know you will have it. We are so proud of you Sammy and can't wait to see where the Road Well Kept will take you.. from the sparkling streets of Broadway to the remote villages of Thailand and beyond!! Today Community Service Prefect, tomorrow...
Love Mom, Dad and Daniel

Danielle Simpson

You have always been full of energy and enthusiasm. Life has never been a walk, but a sprint to experience everything and not miss a moment. Branksome has offered the opportunities and you have grabbed them all with a smile on your face. You have loved the sports teams, the learning opportunities, and the friendships; friendships not only within the school, but around the world as a result of the Branksome exchanges. The word "enthusiastic" was constant vocabulary for teacher feedback, along with engaged, enjoyable and effervescent! We're so proud of you - what you've achieved and how you have enjoyed your school life to the full - we know you will be successful in the future. Love you!Mum, Dad and Natalie

Emily Van Gaasbeek

Emily, Emmy,
What a gift from God you are! Your kind heart and faith will open doors to exciting adventures. Your intellect and hard work will get you wherever you want to go. We will always cheer you on! We love you and we are so very proud of you!Aiti, Dad, Harald and Sarah

Rosalie Springer

Congratulations Rosalie on becoming a graduate of Branksome Hall! We continue to marvel at your conviction and determination to achieve success and pursue excellence. You are and have always been incredibly tenacious, hardworking, and dedicated. Remain true to yourself, your ideals and your values. Continue on your path of honesty, integrity, loyalty, and dedication which will provide a springboard for achievement and fulfillment in your endeavours. Enjoy the next exciting chapter that life has to offer and pursue your dreams with passion and conviction. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Roxy Sonosky

Well, well, well..."The Little One" is all "growned up", seemingly in the blink of an eye. Eleven BH years= Many memories + many roles (e.g. friend, fashionista, artist, advocate, social coordinator, counsellor, sport official, musician, confidante). Determination, persistence, hard work- traits you have in spades that will stand you in good stead no matter what path you choose to follow. We are so very proud of YOU- who you are and what you have accomplished. Congratulations, kiddo, on achieving this milestone and doing it your way. As usual, "The little One " got it right!!!

"Soar high, laugh often, live fully"

With pride, love, and many hugs

Mom, MW, Grandpa, Nanna (From afar), The Winchester gang and Wart & Snave et al.

Claire Soule

Claire it seems like yesterday that you started at Branksome. In those four years you've become confident, charming and bright, an individual with a wicked sense of humour, profoundly compassionate with an inspirational work ethic. Every day you've embraced life, whether it meant getting up in the dark for sports, working all weekend on a project, rounding up girls and their dads for a dance or just attending a regular day of classes.

Your family and friends adore you. A wonderful future awaits you. This picture from Kenya sums you up, happiest when thinking about others, embodying Ghandi's words: "We must be the change we wish to see in the world."

Much love - David, Ally, Mom, Dad and of course a lick from Charlie

Grace Taherzadeh

Dearest Golnar:

As your name truly describes you, you have been the forever blossom of our lives. You have touched our lives in ways no one could ever do. We love you endlessly and we are so very proud and honoured to have you as our daughter, sister, and most mportantly of all friend. Our pomegranate blossom is so small in size yet so big in beauty, wit and passion.

With lots of love,
Dad, Mom, Goli, Leily

Nicole Thornburrow

Congratulations Nicole on your hugely successful journey through BHS. You have inspired us with your passion for seeking out new experiences. Whether it's hockey, baseball, snow boarding, rock climbing, travelling to far-away places, or lending a hand to the young or less fortunate, you have tackled every new situation with confidence, enthusiasm and good humour. When faced with choices, you've always selected the more challenging path, and then succeeded with flying colours, while building many friendships along the way. Nicole, you have done so well and we couldn't be more proud of you! Your spirit and determination will ensure your success as you continue your journey after Branksome.

Love, Mom and Dad

Whitney Turner

Whitney, you had the courage to come to Branksome in Grade 10 and immediately applied yourself - academically, physically and socially. In three short years you have mastered the BH varsity swim team, the BH varsity hockey team, PAC, EE, TOK, IB1, IB2, OL. You have successfully navigated through your courses making wise choices and building lifelong friends along the way!

Now it is time to set your course beyond Branksome. Repeat the formula that works - apply yourself academically, think and make wise choices and add more lifelong friends.

Ve are very proud of your accomplishments and the beautiful young woman you have become. We know you will be successful with whatever you set your mind to do. Your future looks great!

Your grandmothers join us in wishing you well on the road ahead.

Ve trust that you know we are always here to love and support you.

Keep smiling. Lots of Love forever from Mom, Dad and Fraser

Jessica Tsang

Congratulations Jessie! We are proud of your great achievements and success in Branksome. During these years, your amicable personality and assertiveness allows you to well network with your peer and perform all duties diligently. We truly love your positive attitude and confidence - the prerequisites for your success in future studies, work and daily lives. Keep striving for the best!

Basma Zahraoui

Basma in Arabic means smile and it was your brother, Yahya, who selected your name. He was very excited and happy to have a sister. Look how happy he is! We are very happy to see how much the two of you love each other.

In Rabat, you were always one of the strongest students in the class and all of your teachers loved teaching you. We believe that our moving to Canada and your becoming a student at Branksom Hall was a wise decision for your future. You have always taken your studies very seriously and we wish you all the best in becoming the first Doctor in the family.

During the year and half that we have lived in Canada, we have watched you grow at Branksome Hall in learning and mastering another language, culture and making new friends. It is an experience that we know will stay with you throughout your life.

No matter what direction you choose to take in your life we will always remain supportive and proud of you and your choices. You have a wonderful future ahead of you and we hope that you embrace it and reach for all of your dreams.

Love Mum, Dad, ante Karima and Yahya.

Maya Zuzek

Dear Maya

It is hard to believe that 14 years have gone by since that morning, when you and your sister put on your "first special dresses" and walked hand in hand into Mrs. Medland's kindergarten class. It seems like yesterday. Our darling daughter, you have grown into an extraordinarily wonderful, intelligent, honest and well-rounded young woman that will without a doubt be an asset to the whole new world you will embark on. The world is yours to conquer so go out there and make a difference. We love you and are so very proud of you and your achievements as you prepare to leave the halls of Branksome and 'keep well the road".

Teya Zuzek

Dear Teya

It seems like yesterday, you and your sister were anxiously getting ready for your first day at Branksome Hall. We thought that perhaps, escorting you to class would ease any anxiety that you may have had, since we had never been separated before. As we walked towards your kindergarten class, you stopped much before the entrance to the building, turned around and said "This is our place not yours, go home!" We did after shedding a few tears! However, we were confident that you were in good hands. In fact, you have been in good hands for 14 years. As you prepare to leave the halls of Branksome, you are more then ready to embark on the outside world. We love you and we are so very proud of you and the exceptional young woman you have become.

Sarah Smith

SOMETIMES WE THINK A FREIGHT TRAIN CAN'T STOP SARAH SMITH. WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU, SARAH! WE CAN'T IMAGINE YOU NOT SUCCEEDING AT ANYTHING YOU DO. YOUR WORK ETHIC COMBINED WITH YOUR CREATIVE PASSION IS MORE THAN WE EVER IMAGINED. YOUR "NEVER SAY DIE" SPIRIT IS BEYOND WORDS. IT'S ONE THING TO PERFORM LAY-OUTS ON THE BEAM IN GYMNASTICS, BUT IT'S WHEN YOU CONSTANTLY WAKE UP TO BOOKS SPRAWLED OUT ALL OVER YOUR BED WITH HIGHLIGHTERS AND STICKY TABS EVERYWHERE, WE ARE IN AWE OF HOW YOU BALANCE ALL YOUR COMMITMENTS. WE ARE SO PLEASED YOU MADE YOUR OWN LEADERSHIP PATH - WHETHER IT BE PUTTING IN HUNDREDS OF HOURS PERFECTING 5 MINUTES ON A VIDEO TO PRESENT FOR THE COSTA RICA ASSEMBLY = OR THE TIME YOU TAKE TO REASSURE AND SUPPORT THE YOUNGER GYMNASTS ON YOUR TEAM. YOUR ENERGY CONTINUES TO DEFY GRAVITY. WE ARE MOVED BY YOUR TENACITY; WHEN SOMEONE SAYS YOU CAN'T DO SOMETHING - YOU ARE RUTHLESS IN DEMONSTRATING THAT YOU CAN! WE SUSPECT BRANKSOME WILL COME TO SEE THAT THEIR INVESTMENT IN SARAH SMITH WAS A WORTHWHILE ONE - AS WE KNOW THE BEST IS YET TO COME!

Aliya you have traveled well the Branksome road and now your path takes you to Bard... With love,admiration and pride, find your path and make a trail, knowing that we walk with you. Love, Mom and Dad

Laura Baum

Laura: Can you believe high school is done? Graduation in May, 2010! Your accomplishments have made all of us very proud, and your drive and perseverance have paid off. You rose to the challenge of entering a new school and taking on a new way of learning, and you exceeded our expectations at every turn! You sure made the most of your years at Branksome...from rowing to track and field to softball to hockey, from jazz choir to homework club to student council to Duke of Ed. In your final year, you ended with head of publicity crew and co-head of peer support and incredible academic results. Congratulations Laurs on a job well done! Love Mom, Dad, and the boys.

Elizabeth Worndl

We are so proud of you, our little Beeky.
You are a doer. From the time you were a baby you have been an organizer. Whether it has been running a tricycle drive-thru in the backyard, a coat check at parties or a clan challenge in high school, you work tirelessly. As you have seen the need for change in poor countries we have seen you direct your energy to organizing for worthy causes. We try and keep up.
We are truly proud of your accomplishments. A scholar, an athlete, a volunteer, a hard-worker, a leader, a loyal friend, a traveler, a dedicated sister, a loving daughter and grand-daughter. You do it all and you do it well.
Being your parents has been a true joy. You inspire us with your boundless energy, dedication to hard work and your sense of humour. You have made us better people.As you reflect on your time at Branksome we hope you see how you have grown. Good luck in university. You set high goals that we know you will achieve. We are contemplating what life will be like when you are away at school and already we miss you. God bless.
All our love, Mommy and Dad

Congratulations
BRANKSOME GRAD'S OF 2010!

Katherine MacDonald

Dearest Katherine
Even before your debut on May 27, 1992, you made it clear that you would be doing things your own way. Now, as you graduate on your Birthday so little has changed. Like Sinatra who did it "My Way", you always did things your way, which sometimes, to us, seemed to be the hardest way imaginable. Yet, throughout all of this your caring attitude, your concern for others, your wicked sense of humour, and your feeble attempts to "hide your light under a bushel" have helped you learn to be resilient in adversity and adaptable to change, all of which make us so extremely proud of you and the beautiful young woman you have become.
Much love always,
Dad, Mom, David & Heather
